Studying World Bank at First Hand

In three years the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, one of U.N.'s Specialized Agencies, has received hundreds of visitors, but few have shown more interest in the Bank's operations than a group of 32 students from eleven countries which recently visited the Bank. Here with Bank's President Eugene B. Black, are (left to right) Suzanne Vauchez of France; Jirina Hrazdilova of Czechoslovakia; and Aavo Kempainen of Finland. They studied in the U. S. on American Field Service scholarships.

Methodists Plan Youth Activities

Sunday evening at 6 o'clock Youth Activities Week at Central Methodist church will begin with a Vesper service.

Theme of the week is "Jesus' Way—our Way, Through Faith." Vesper services will be on "The Marks of A Christian," and the Study Course, "Our Protestant Belief" will be taught by Mr. Kelly Dixon. On Monday all the young people will meet together for a "Workshop" quiz and discussion. Tuesday and Wednesday they will meet in small groups under the direction of the commission chairmen, Ramona Allen, Bob Goforth, John Warlick, and Dorothy Smith. Mrs. Hill Carpenter will direct recreation. All young people from 12-23 are invited to participate in this week full of activities. Bill Allen is president of the Senior MYF and Mrs. J. C. McKinney, Jr., is superintendent of the Youth division.

Mountaineer Gridders Began Practice Drills On Monday

Some 41 candidates for the 1949 Kings Mountain high school football team began pre-school drills on Monday.

Pointing toward a September 16 opening date in Hendersonville, Coaches Shu Carlton and Don Parker had only a half-dozen returnees from the 1948 squad.

On hand to help with the drill sessions were several former high school players and Pride Batterree, former all-state player with Wake Forest and former coach at Stanton Military Academy.

Included in the group of former players was Jack Ruth, ace fullback and co-captain of the 1948 team. Others were Dickie Foster, and Jim Kullender, Gardner-Webb college players.

Veterans back for this year's team include Center Curtis Wright, Tailback Richard White, End Bob Jackson, Guard Roger McDaniel, Bryan Ware and Delvin Huffstetler. Huffstetler was out of action most of last season with a broken arm and Ware a guard of the 1948 aggregation, is running in the blocking back slot in drills this week.

Other candidates for the team include Charles Shytle, Bill Ruth, Don Bumgardner, Jack Rhea, Jim Cobb, Dick Webb, Walt Griffin, and Jim Kimmel, backs, and Gene Austin, Don Flowers, Charles Mauney, Don Cashion, Jack Crouch, Jack Moss, Robert Davis, Gerald Valentine, Dickie McMakin, Jake Hord, Raymond Goforth, Bob Sellers, Darrill Austin, Vernon Tate, Jack Sims, Jack Bennett, Bobby Humphries, Gene Welch, Junior Staggs, Kenneth Davis, Fred Tate, Barry Short, Harold Rinehardt, Harry Melton, Houston Smith, and Steve Jones.
