

Society

Circle Meetings

Methodist
Mrs. Lee Dover and Mrs. John Fletcher Ware were hostesses to Circle No. 1 of the W. S. C. S. at the home of Mrs. Dover on Monday afternoon September 5, with 19 members and 1 visitor present.

Mrs. Paul E. Hendricks, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Crosland, presented a most interesting program on "Advance," giving the four points necessary for advance.

1. Membership.
 2. Education as to conditions and needs at home and abroad.
 3. Recruiting of full-time Christian workers.
 4. Increased giving.
- Mrs. J. R. Davis, leader, conducted the business session.
- Announcements made were:
An all-day Study Course will be held at the church on Wednesday, September 28. The book to be studied is, "Newness of Life."

The Spiritual Life Group met with Mrs. D. L. Saunders on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 14.

Mrs. Claude Ware and Mrs. M. L. Houser will be hostesses to the October meeting of the circle.

Circle No. 2 of the Methodist church met Monday night with Mrs. Ben Beam.

Mrs. George Lattimore leader, presided. Mrs. Pink Ware, gave the devotional. Mrs. J. H. Patterson gave an interesting program on "Advance."

Mrs. Beam assisted by her daughters, Misses Margaret Harmon and Mary Ann Beam served a sweet course and punch.

On Tuesday night at 7:30, Mrs. Pat Tignor was hostess to Circle No. 3, Central Methodist church, in the church basement, for a weenie roast. Twenty were present. Following the delicious hot dog supper served by Mrs. Tignor, a program, "Advance, O Church of God," was presented by Miss Martha Walker. The group sang a hymn, "Trust and Obey," with Grace Blanton at the piano. Following a talk on the "Advance, a Four Point Program," by Martha Walker, in which she explained the points of advance, membership, education and action, recruiting, and giving, two of the members, Grace Davis and Lela Clark, presented a short playlet, in which a member of the WSCS was inviting a new church member to join the WSCS. Winifred Fulton then gave a talk on "Membership," and Martha Walker gave the concluding remarks.

During the business session a new secretary was elected: Mrs. Clay Poston, to replace Mrs. John Campbell, who has moved away from Kings Mountain. Mrs. Bun Goforth, circle leader, read a note to the circle from Barbara Gault, secretary of MYF, thanking them for the supper they prepared for the youth during youth activities week. Cards on "Fellowship of Intercession" were distributed to be read and signed. Grace Blanton, Treasurer, received WSCS funds, also a free-will offering for the American Bible Society. Members were asked by Grace Davis to bring coupons from soap flour, baking powder, etc., to aid the Bethlehem Center in securing a new fence.

This circle will meet next month with Grace Davis, Lela Clark is to be co-hostess. The group decided to have a Halloween party at their October meeting, with a prize for the best costume. Games following the program and business will be led by Mrs. Baxter Payseur.

Circle No. 5 met Monday night with Mrs. John Fisher with nine members and two visitors present. Mrs. Ralph Mauney, leader, presided. The devotional was given by Mrs. John Dilling.

Mrs. H. M. Biser and Mrs. L. A. Hoke gave the program on "Advance" discussing two phases of it, "Membership," and "Spectators Religion."

During the social hour the hostess served a chicken salad course and pineapple chiffon pie.

Presbyterian

Circle No. 1 of the Presbyterian church met Monday night with their chairman, Mrs. Merle Beatty.

Mrs. C. E. Murphy gave the devotional and Bible Study.

Mrs. E. T. Platt gave an introductory article on "Life Up Your Eyes," the book the Women of the Church are to study during religious educational season.

After a brief business meeting a social hour was enjoyed, during which time delightful refreshments were served.

Lutheran

The Rachel Mitcham group of St. Matthew's Lutheran church met on Tuesday evening with Mrs. Beverly Jackson. Mrs. Stowe Deviney led the devotions. Mrs. Robert Allen brought us an interesting report of the convention of the Woman's Missionary Society held in Hickory August 27-29. After the business meeting the hostess served delightful refreshments.

Miss Delores Bridges Honored With Shower

Mrs. Otis Falls and Miss Betty Falls entertained last Friday night at the Woman's Club house with a miscellaneous shower, complimenting Miss Delores Bridges, bride-elect of September.

On her arrival Miss Bridges was presented a corsage of asters and tube roses by the hostesses. Little umbrellas were presented to each guest as favors and pinned on as corsages.

A number of games were enjoyed after which the hostesses served ice cream, cake, punch and peanuts using a green, white and pink decorative color note on refreshment plates.

The gifts were presented to the bride-elect and opened after refreshments.

The W. K. Whites Note 56th Anniversary

The children of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. White gathered with them on Wednesday, August 31, to help celebrate their 56th wedding anniversary.

A daughter, Mrs. Fred Babington, and Mr. Babington, of Nantahala, shared honors, as their 15th wedding anniversary was the next day.

A very bountiful dinner was served and enjoyed by the children and grandchildren.

Mrs. A. A. Lackey, Jr. Gives Bridge Party

Mrs. A. A. Lackey, Jr., of Fallston entertained with two tables of bridge at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Lackey, Tuesday night. Late summer flowers were used in the party rooms.

After several progressions, Miss Frances Payne received high score prize with Miss Dorcas Carpenter winning consolation.

A tempting salad and sweet course was served.

The party personnel included Misses Frances Payne, Dorcas Carpenter, Louann Herndon, Betty Lynch, Peggy Arthur, Betty Hord, Bobbie Simmons and Mrs. David Neill.

Senator Vandenberg started his career as an office boy on the Grand Rapids Herald.

In 1944 the school enrollment in Alabama was 413,567 white and 228,468 negroes.

Woodward's

NEW FALL TIES

Biggest, best and widest ties since before the war. Extra wide, full-lined, new patterns. A new shipment and the best buy we've ever offered.

$1.00 Each

for every feminine type

the "MENSWEAR" touch

Doris Dodson JUNIORS

"Fashion Major" for the popular college. A Scotsman's plaid in thistle weight wool and rayon. Skirt comprised of highland pleats and fitted torso. Waist has a jaunty arched cut over the hips. Very smart, very new... sleeve pockets. 9 to 15.

$14.95

other Doris Dodson Jrs. from $10.95

Russet Sandstone Oxford Grey

as seen in CHARM

MYERS'

DRESS SHOP

Second Floor

Stolen "From The Boys". Their sports shirt is ours now...with details sharp as a cresset. The collar mounted on a neckband, the trouser-like skirt, take their snap and distinction from the gentlemen. Rayon-fabric treated to resist wrinkling. A proper steal, all around. 9 to 15.

$12.95

star fall attraction!

B.V.D. BRAND

colorful gabardine SPECTACULARS!

Hurry—We're putting on the world's greatest show of color in sport shirts... *B.V.D.

Cabardine Spectaculars in two world-renowned styles: Hollywood

*Rogue—buttonless pullover, worn in-or-out ... or B.V.D. *Ruggers—two-way collar for with or without a tie. And all in lustrous wonderful colors.

$5.00

Other Gabardine Sport Shirts in light and dark colors

$3.50

Myers'

DEPARTMENT STORE

Dress Shop—Second Floor

CITY STADIUM, KINGS MOUNTAIN

KINGS MOUNTAIN

Black Sox

LAST BIG GAME OF THE SEASON

VS

SATURDAY, SEPT. 10, 8 P. M.

YORK

Greys

ADMISSION—60c and 30c