WOW Circle To Attend Ellenboro Meeting

WOW CIRCLE TO ATTEND ... Willing Workers Club of Spring Forest W. O. W. circle will meet at Ellenboro's Woman's Club house Friday night, September 30 at 7:30. Members of the local group are requested to attend. Mrs. Pittman stated they would leave from the W. O. W. hall at 6:30. All who plan to go and do not have transportation are requested to be on time.

The social meeting that was to be held Friday night has been called off on account of the Ellenboro meeting.

Entre-Nous Club Meets With Mrs. B. A. Murray

The Entre-Nous Bridge club met

Tuesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock with Mrs. B. A. Murray in her home on Mountain street. Bowls of zinnias and snapdragons were used in the living and dining room where tables were arranged.

Covers were laid when the guests arrived. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Clay Poston in serving strawberry shortcake and a drink. After several progressions of bridge Mrs. Clyde Kerns was awarded high score prize. Mrs. H. L. Campbell received the consolation prize. Mrs. M. H. Biser and Mrs. S. M. Brown were invited guests.

Lutheran Young People To Present Program

The Young People of St. Matthew's Lutheran church will be in charge of the service on Sunday evening, October 2. The program, "Listen, He Speaks," a program prepared by the Luther League of America, will introduce the next emphasis in the Luther Leagues of America, to be known as "Operation Spiritual," a project in Bible Study and Prayer.

The people taking part in the program will be: Jack Still, Pat Smyre, Betty Falls, Gene Mauney, Helen Ramsey, and Will Plonk.
