Study Club Meets With Mrs. L. A. Hoke

The Study Club met Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. L. A. Hoke. Bowls of mixed flowers were used in the living room. In the dining room a fruit arrangement and silver candelabras with white candles added a pleasing note of color and decoration.

The hostess assisted by Miss Joyce Biser and Mrs. Dan Finger served a frozen fruit salad with other party accessories. A sweet course was passed.

In the absence of the program chairman for the evening the guest speaker, Mr. Fajson Barnes, was introduced by Mrs. P. D. Herndon. Mr. Barnes in a very witty and entertaining way discussed "Women's Property Rights," emphasizing the general nature and kind of wills. When asked if there were any questions, the ladies asked so many and wanted so much information the meeting was very informal and the ladies received a lot of "free information."

During the business period Mrs. Patterson distributed the new books. Roll was called and minutes of the last meeting read. Mrs. Barnes, the retiring president, expressed her appreciation for the cooperation given her during the year.

Mrs. Harry Moore and Mrs. Dan Finger were invited guests.
