Luncheon Saturday For Miss Elliott

Miss Betty Elliott, bride-elect, was honored Saturday at a luncheon given at Cleveland Hotel by Miss Elizabeth Green of Shelby and Mrs. James S. Ware of Kings Mountain. Miss Elliott wore a black crepe dress with black accessories and a gardenia at her shoulder.

The table was attractively decorated with wedding bells. There was one large white crepe wedding bell in the center with a smaller one on each side of it and each of the three was surrounded with white mums and ivy. White satin ribbons coming from beneath the central wedding bell, ran to the places of guests where small white wedding bells, attached to the ends of the ribbons, served as place cards.

Covers were laid for Miss Elliott, Mrs. B. H. Elliott, Miss Barbara Tiddy, Mrs. Harry Elliott, Mrs. Bob Williams, Mrs. Hubert Plaster, all of Shelby, Mrs. David Neill and Mrs. B. S. Neill of Kings Mountain, Mrs. Jack Fortune of Hickory, Mrs. Buren S. Neill, Jr., of Gastonia, Miss Frances Atkinson of Gaffney, S. C., and Miss Dorothy Mitchell of Sharon, S. C.

Robert Neill Fetes Groomsmen

Robert Harrison Neill was host at a stag dinner at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Neill, on Friday night, honoring the men who took part in his wedding Sunday.

A four-course steak dinner with other delectable accompaniments was served.

At this time gifts were presented to the attendants by the hosts.

Bovine tuberculosis has now become so scarce that veterinary schools sometimes have difficulty in locating tuberculosis cattle for study by students.

The 1949 cotton crop is estimated at 15,446,000 bales, with a per-acre lint yield of 286.2 pounds as compared with the 10-year average of 254 pounds.

By practicing chemical defoliation — ridding the plant of its leaves — many Tar Heel farmers are improving both the yield and the quality of their cotton crops.

Hayes Assigned To Camp Carson Outfit

Voyd L. Hayes, US Army, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rives Hayes of route 3, Kings Mountain, N. C., has recently been assigned for duty with Heavy Mortar Co., of the 14th Regimental Combat Team at Camp Carson, Colorado, near Colorado Springs, where he will participate in training for Mountain and Winter Rescue work.

The 14th RCT has a long and enviable record dating back to 1790 when the first 14th Infantry Regiment was formed. More recently, it will be remembered for its invaluable assistance in "Operation Snow-bound" during the severe winter of 1949 at which time many families were isolated and much valuable livestock endangered.

Pfc. Hayes, a cook, entered the military service on 18 August 1948 and received his Basic Training at Fort Jackson, S. C., with Medical Co. 31th Inf.
