Miss Lindsay Reveals Plans For Wedding

Plans have been completed for the marriage of Miss Katharine Louise Lindsay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Lindsay and Paul Edward Early, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Grayson Early.

The wedding will take place Saturday afternoon, November 12, at 8 o'clock at the First Baptist church. Rev. L. C. Pinnix, pastor of the church, will officiate.

A program of wedding music will be presented by Mrs. J. C. Bridges, organist, and Miss Evelyn Cline, soloist.

The bride's father, C. L. Lindsay, will give her in marriage. Miss Frances Lindsay, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor. Misses Jean Cash, Sybil Blalock, and Evelyn Roberts will serve as bridesmaids. Miss Lavonne Lindsay, sister of the bride, will be junior bridesmaid.

The bridegroom-elect will have his brother, Gene Early, as best man. Ushers will include Bill Green and William Mullinax, uncles of the bride, Bill Bolin, brother-in-law of the groom, and J. T. McGinnis.

Mrs. William Mullinax and Mrs. Bill Green, aunts of the bride, will preside over the register.

Sunday School Teacher Complimented

Mrs. Charles Warlick was hostess to members of the Daughters of Wesley Bible class of Central Methodist church at her home on Gaston street Wednesday night, the party planned as a special compliment to the faithful and efficient teacher of the class, Mrs. W. R. Craig.

The living room and den, where the guests were seated were arranged with fall flowers and greenery.

Mrs. C. L. Jolly presided over a short business session, during which Mrs. Y. F. Throneburg gave a report on the work of renovating and re-decorating the class room, recently completed.

Mrs. Craig was presented a handsome pair of bras andirons as a token of love and appreciation from class members and although taken by surprise, she made a very gracious acceptance speech.

The guests were invited to the dining room for refreshments. The buffet had an arrangement of fruits and vegetables falling from a back of a huge pumpkin with a background of greenery.

The dining table, spread with a lace cover was appointed with soft green lighted tapers in crystal holders, twined with asparagus fern and at one end of the table was placed a silver tea service from which tea was served by Mrs. A. H. Patterson. Guests helped themselves to an assortment of fancy sandwiches, salted nuts, stuffed dates and decorated cookies.

Around twenty four members of the class were present. Invited guests included Mrs. J. H. Brendall and Mrs. Williamson.

Miss Lindsay Honored With Shower

An air of festivity prevailed throughout the home of Mrs. Charlie Blalock on Monday night when Mrs. Blalock and two of her daughters Mrs. Donald Crawford and Miss Sybil Blalock, entertained as a pre-wedding courtesy to Miss Louise Lindsay, a bride of the week.

The bridal motif of green and white was carried out in the decorations and refreshments. White carnations were used in the living room. A very unique arrangement centered the mantle with lighted candles on either end entwined with plumosus fern.

On her arrival the hostesses presented the honoree with a white feathered carnation corsage.

Several bridal games were played with the winners presenting their prizes to the honoree.

The doorbell rang, Miss Lindsay was asked to go to the door, there she found a large package. On entering and opening it, she was showered with many lovely gifts of lingerie by the guests present.

A dessert course was served by the hostess. Individual miniature umbrellas were given as favors.

Mrs. R. D. Goforth Circle Hostess

Circle No. 1 of the Presbyterian church met Monday night at the home of Mrs. R. D. Goforth. Fourteen members were present. Mrs. Charles Murphy presented the devotional and Mrs. Evans gave the program.

Two visitors were present, Mrs. P. D. Patrick and Miss Josephine Culp. Light refreshments were served during the social hour.

Mrs. D. M. Peeler Fetes Garden Club

The lovely new home of Mrs. Drace Peeler was the scene of the November meeting of the Kings Mountain Garden Club. Arrangements in the home featured chrysanthemums and dried flowers.

The program subject was "The Thanksgiving of our Pilgrim Fathers and the Thanksgiving of Today." A delightful discussion was led by Mrs. Dan Finger who gave an interesting sketch on the historical meaning, and the modern interpretation of Thanksgiving.

Mrs. W. L. Pressly presented a turkey fashioned from an apple and used the letters in the word "Turkey" as the inspiration for an original rhyme.

Two beautiful fruit arrangements were brought by members of teams 1 and 2. One arrangement was of all yellow fruit combined with day lilies and yellow foliage. The other arrangement was of mixed fruits combining mixed fruits with autumn leaves. Several specimens of berries were also displayed.

Mrs. George H. Mauney gave a report on the District Meeting held in Statesville.

Plans for the Christmas Pilgrimage to be sponsored by the club were discussed. Several members of the club have consented to open their homes to the public on December 21 to display Christmas decorations and spread a bit of Christmas cheer.

This is a civic project, the first of its kind to be sponsored by the Kings Mountain Garden Club. There will be an admission for the homes, this admission to be used by the club for additional club projects.

Committees were appointed to work out details for the Christmas Pilgrimage and club members wish the public to share in Christmas hospitality. The homes to be open and the hours will be announced later.

Junior Woman's Club Met Monday Night

The regular meeting of the Junior Woman's Club was held Monday night in the club house with Misses Grace Davis, Irene Allen and Helen Ramsey as hostess.

Special guest at the meeting was Mrs. Aubrey Mauney, Senior Club sponsor.

During the business meeting the committee in charge of selling Holland's Magazine reported also a report from the committee on selling candy at the Floral Fair.

The club voted to give ten dollars for the North Carolina Junior project in Greensboro and to assist

Mrs. M. A. Ware is chairman of the committee on arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Joe Neisler and Mrs. J. L. McGill.

At the conclusion of the meeting Mrs. Peeler served attractive turkey ice cream molds with salted nuts and coffee.

Senior Woman's Club in a Better Community Project

The president led in an open discussion on "The U. S. Charter."

During the social period refreshments were served by the hostesses.
