place outfits. Last night's games should have decided the positions, but left the possibility that East and West school teams would finish in a tie for third place. In that event, the third place club is to be decided by "flip of the coin," according to Dan Huffstetler, committee chairman.

East was billed to face Central and West was to play Park-Grace in the final doubleheader last night. In games played before the smallest crowd and in the coldest weather of the season last Saturday night, Central "Bullets" downed West "Chevrolet Blue Devils" 7-0 with a fourth quarter score in a thriller and Park-Grace "Wildcats" edged East "Keeter Kats" 13-7 in another bangup tussle.

Ollie Harris, Central fullback, took a pass from Tailback Richard George for the touchdown and Harris bulled through the line for the point after.

back, hit through the line, cutback and reversed the field on a 45-yard scamper for one score and Fullback Robert Champion plunged over one yard out to cap another drive. Champion added the point after touchdown.

Jack Fletcher scored the East school touchdown and Tailback Don Connor plunged for the point after.

Selection of the two 22-man teams and the head coaches for the all-star game will be made after Thursday's finale.

First games in the program, organized here this year by The Mountaineer Club, Inc., were played on October 1. Uniforms for the teams were purchased by Mauney Textile Interests, including Kings Mountain Manufacturing Co., Mauney Hosiery Mill, and Bonnie, Mauney and Sadie Cotton Mills, Neisler Mills, Inc., Keeter's Department Stores, and Victory Chevrolet Company.
