SCHOOL NEWS

Future Teachers Club Organized

The Future Teachers Club, a new club, of Kings Mountain high school has been organized for students who are interested in that particular field of work.

Officers of the recently organized club are: President, Jean Cash; vice-president, Jean Lynch; secretary-treasurer, Jo Ann Stewart; Student Council representative, Pat Neisler, and Reporter, Iris Patterson. Miss Odessa Black, high school science teacher, has been chosen as advisor. The meetings, which are held semi-monthly have proved to be very interesting. The members have ordered catalogues from various colleges in order to learn more about the colleges of their preferences.

The purpose of this club is to familiarize its members with the teaching profession.

Book Week Observed

"Book Week" was observed in the Kings Mountain high school under the auspices of the local chapter of the National Honor Society. In addition to the slogans and posters placed in the study hall and library, the students competed by entering the book representation contest. The winner, Clarence McDaniel, received a book for his entry, an excellent scene in painted, molded, clay, representing "Huckleberry Finn," by Mark Twain. Second place was given to Melba Tindall and Ruth Crawford for their clay model of a prehistoric animal to represent the book, "Animals on the March," by Reed and Lucas.

During home room period Wednesday, the chapter presented over the intercommunication system a one-act radio play entitled "The Great Gift," by Hark and McQueen. Those taking part under the direction of Iris Patterson were Joann Bridges, Bobby Edens, Horace Cunningham, and Jack Hicks.

Prices farmers receive for eggs and chickens probably will average lower in 1950 than in 1949, according to USDA. Consumer demand will be weaker. Supplies of eggs will be large enough to provide a high rate of consumption.

Burlington Shows $18 Million Net

GREENSBORO Nov. 22.—Consolidated net sales of $263,400,000 and net earnings of $18,200,000 for their year ended October 1, 1949, were reported today by Burlington Mills Corporation.

After providing for preferred dividends, these earnings are equivalent to $4.30 per common share. These results compare with consolidated net sales of $288,161,509 and net earnings of $31,219,943 for the 1948 fiscal year. After providing for preferred dividends, these earnings figured $7.53 per common share outstanding.

The Company's annual statement presenting the details of its operations is now being prepared for the printer and will be released the latter part of December.
