

NSLI Deadline December 31st

A deadline in connection with National Service Life Insurance is coming up December 31, 1949, for veterans with service-incurred disabilities less than total in degree, the Veterans Administration warns.

Generally a World War II veteran who applies for new insurance or to reinstate a policy that has lapsed, must furnish VA with satisfactory evidence of his good health. But so long as he applies before January 1, 1950, a service-incurred disability, if less than total in degree, will be disregarded in determining good health for this purpose. The disability must have been incurred in service between October 8, 1940, and September 2, 1945.

A veteran who applies for the NSLI total disability income provision also is required to furnish evidence of good health. In this case, too, a disability incurred in service between those same two dates, if less than total in degree, will be disregarded in determining good health. The application for the total disability income provision must be made before January 1, 1950.

World War II veterans eligible for automobiles have June 30, 1950, as their deadline, before which applications must be made. Such veterans who in service lost, or lost the use of, one or both legs at or above the ankle may be entitled to receive an automobile or other conveyance at Government expense.

—I am eligible for three years of training under the GI Bill. May I use 9 months of my enlistment to complete my high school course and the remaining 27 months for on-the-job training?

A.—You may complete your high school course with your entitlement, but it will be necessary for you to obtain a supplemental certificate of eligibility following completion of your high school course so that you may present it to the institution in which you are to receive job training.

Q.—I intend to apply for a GI loan to go into business. If my business venture fails and I have not paid off the entire loan, will I be expected to pay the balance?

A.—If the government has to pay

Wagoner Gets State 4-H Post

Fred H. Wagoner, assistant farm agent in Edgecombe County, has been appointed assistant State 4-H Club leader, according to an announcement by D. S. Weaver, assistant director of the State College Extension Service. He will take over his new duties on December 1 and will work out of the State 4-H office in Raleigh.

He is the son of J. A. Wagoner, Guilford count farm agent and Mrs. Wagoner. He attended State College, where he was a member of the wrestling and football teams. He played tackle of the varsity grid team while his brother John, now with a professional team in Ottawa, Canada, played guard.

After specializing in animal industry and receiving a B. S. in agriculture in 1947, Wagoner returned to State College to do graduate work in the lender any part of the guaranteed portion of the loan, you will be obligated to the government for the payment.

field crops for more than a year. His wife is the former Dorothy Mann, a native of Mebane and former assistant home demonstration agent in Rockingham County. They have one son, Donald, who is two years old.

Brendall At Meeting In Philadelphia, Pa.

PHILADELPHIA. — The Rev. Joseph Henry Brendall, Jr., pastor of Central Methodist church, Kings Mountain, N. C., arrived here Saturday to participate in what Methodist leaders regard as the greatest program of evangelism to be launched by any church. One thousand leading clergymen from every state in the Union have been selected for this endeavor.

The program for the week will center in the Arch Street Methodist church of Philadelphia, one of the outstanding churches of the East.

Two ministers will be sent to each Methodist church within a radius of 50 miles of Philadelphia. One will direct a program of visitation evangelism, while the other will speak at mass evangelistic services each evening.

The week will close with a rally in Convention Hall, Philadelphia, where Bishop Angle W. Smith of the Oklahoma-New Mexico Area will be the speaker and the internationally famous, Homer Rodenheaver, will be the song leader.

Fat Stock Shows Mark Most Successful Year

North Carolina has just completed its most successful fat stock show season on record, says Jack Kelley, swine specialist for the State College Extension Service. More than twice as many hogs were shown and sold in North Carolina this year as last.

A total of 1392 hogs, weighing over 500,000 pounds, were entered in 11 county and district shows this past summer and autumn. Only 670 hogs were entered in eight shows last year. Location of the 1949 shows were Kinston, Goldsboro, Smithfield, Durham, Rocky Mount, Fairmont, Williamston, Elizabeth City, Statesville and Wendell. The Statesville, Wendell and Goldsboro shows were new this year.

The Kinston show was the biggest of the group, attracting 316 entries. The highest price paid was at the Rocky Mount show where the grand champion brought $1.25 a pound. The Statesville show brought the highest average price of 22 cents a pound.

Kelley complimented 4-H members for their fine showings. He said 4-H'ers won the grand championships at eight of the eleven shows.

Gowing In Annual Visit At Winthrop

ROCK HILL. — Gene Gowing of New York City, national director of American and English Folkways, will return to Winthrop college December 3 for his third annual visit.

An authority on folk and square dancing, Gowing will conduct classes for Winthrop students through December 10.

A highlight of his visit will be a Saturday night square dance, December 3, with Gowing calling the dance for Winthrop students.

While less than ten percent of California's population lives on farms, it is first among the states in farm income.
