Country Club Entertains Teen-Agers

Thursday night, December 29, the social committee of the Country Club entertained with a dance at the club house.

Christmas greens, snow scenes and early spring blooms were used for decorations.

A large crowd enjoyed the round and square dancing. Horns, hats and seppentines were gaily used to entertain during the dance.

The punch table was decorated in Christmas greens and balls. Cookies, candy and punch was served. Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoyle, Mr. and Mrs. Hilton Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Harmon, Mrs. Sam Davis, Mrs. Howard Jackson, Mrs. Tolly Shuford and Mrs. Carl Mayes.

Mrs. Geo. Houser Fetes Fortnighter's Club

Mrs. George Houser entertained members of the Fortnighters club at a dessert bridge at her home Friday afternoon. Invited to play with the bridge club members were Mrs. G. F. Lattimore and Mrs. H. E. Lynch.

Potted plants were used as decorative notes of interest.

After a pleasant afternoon of bridge, when players compared scores, the high score prize went to Mrs. Jim Smith.

Miss Nancy Allen Bride Of W. M. Hord

Miss Nancy Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin M. Allen of Kings Mountain, became the bride of William Miles Hord, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Hord, also of Kings Mountain, in a ceremony which took place Thursday evening, December 22, at 8 o'clock at the First Baptist parsonage. Rev. L. C. Pinnix, pastor heard the vows of the doubling ceremony.

The bride was becomingly dressed in a navy blue suit with a white velvet hat and other accessories in black suede and wore a corsage of red rosebuds at her shoulder.

Mr. and Mrs. Hord are making their home on Candler street.

The State's average corn yield for 1949 is estimated at 35 bushels per acre, the highest on record. The previous highest yield was 31.5 bushels per acre, made in 1947.

Banquet Honors College Students

On December 28, the Presbyterian Youth Fellowship gave a banquet honoring the college students. A delicious dinner was served by the Women of the Church.

Rev. P. D. Patrick gave the invocation. Buddy Beatty welcomed the college students.

Carl Moss told an inspiring story about the "Life At Knocknee College." Gilbert McKelvie played, a trombone solo accompanied by Miss Giff.

Toasts were given by Pat Neisler, Charles Painter, and Sammy McCarter.

The closing thought was brought by Rev. P. D. Patrick.

Social Club Meets With Mrs. O. W. Myers

Mrs. O. W. Myers was hostess Thursday night when members of the Social Club met at her home to play rook.

Christmas decorations which were elaborate and colorful were in appropriate displays throughout the home inspiring the Yuletide spirit.

Refreshments were served buffet style upon the arrival of the members, and they found their places at auxiliary tables.

Interesting progressions of rook ensued with Mrs. C. E. Neisler winning high score and Mrs. E. A. Harrell winning the floating prize.

Miss Peggy Baker Luncheon Hostess

Miss Peggy Baker was a charming hostess Friday entertaining a group of high school friends at a three-course luncheon.

The home was gaily decorated in keeping with the Yule season.

After luncheon there was an hour of general companionship, fun and reminiscences of high school days.

Those enjoying Miss Baker's hospitality included Mrs. Ernest Mauney, Long Island, Mrs. Bill Merritt, Roanoke, Va., Miss Clara Plonk, New York City, Mrs. D. F. Hord, Mrs. Clarence Plonk, Jr., Mrs. Grady Howard and Mrs. Maynard Snow.

Mrs. C. F. Thomasson Bridge Club Hostess

Mrs. C. F. Thomasson, Sr., delightfully entertained members of the Twin-Table bridge club and additional guests, Mrs. Fred Finger and Mrs. L. P. Stowe at her home Friday night.

The home was lovely with the lighted white Christmas tree, poinsettias and other Yule decorations.

The hostess was assisted in serving a dessert course when all guests had arrived.

Bridge was played progressively. At the close of four progressions tallies were compared. High score prize for visitors went to Mrs. Finger, Mrs. Claud Hambricht won high for club members with Mrs. E. W. Griffin winning second high.

DON'T GAMBLE

Webster defines the word gamble as: "To risk or wager something of value upon a chance". In illness, to gamble on an unknown remedy or cure-all is indeed taking a chance. When you are ill, by all means seek the advice of a medical doctor promptly. Don't be misled by the false statements and claims of unethical practitioners. Chance plays no part in the practice of medicine. ONLY FACTS COUNT.
