Miss Selma Allen Bride-Elect Honored

One of the lovely parties of the week honoring Miss Selma Allen, bride-elect of Sunday, was the bingo party and kitchen shower given Tuesday night by Miss Betty Hayes at her home on Watter-son street.

The living room where small tables were placed for the games was very attractive, the honoree's place was designated by a corsage of white spilt carnations, the traditional bridal colors of green and white being carried out in both decorations and refreshments.

Two Are Hostesses At Bridge Party

Mrs. J. F. Evans and Mrs. G. W. King entertained at a delightful bridge party Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. King.

The home was beautifully decorated with January jasmine, narcissus and nandina berries. At the beginning of the play, the hostesses were assisted in serving a dessert course and coffee.

Spring tallies were given out and guests found their places at five tables arranged for bridge.

Following several progressions of bridge, Mrs. J. E. Herndon was awarded high score prize and Mrs. E. A. Smith was given a consolation gift for scoring low. Mrs. Paul Mauney was winner of the floating prize.

Margrace Woman's Club Meets

The Margrace Woman's Club held their regular meeting at the club house last Friday evening.

Mesdames C. W. Falls, John Jenkins and C. C. Lynn were hostesses.

Following the devotional and business session a tempting refreshment plate of sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, home made cake and iced drinks was served by the hostesses.

Entre-Nous Club With Mrs. Campbell

Mrs. E. T. Platt and Mrs. Ralph Mauney were invited to play with members of the Entre-Nous bridge club when they met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. H. L. Campbell.

Potted plants added charm to the living room where two tables were placed for bridge.

Mrs. Campbell served devil food cake and coffee before the game and passed cookies during the progressions.

Mrs. W. W. Tolleson won high score prize with Mrs. Ralph Mauney receiving second high.

Peelers Dinner Hosts To Methodist Choirs

The Senior Choir of Central Methodist church, with their wives and husbands were guests of B. S. Peeler, Jr., and Mrs. B. S. Peeler, on Thursday night, January 12, at 7:30 p. m. for supper. The Peeler home was attractively decorated with early spring flowers. A Chinese Ming tray placed on the piano below a Chinese painting added beauty to the scene. Twenty-eight were present.

A delicious turkey dinner with all the trimmings was served buffet style in the dining room, where the table was centered with a large bowl of jonquills, mixed with other spring flowers. Guests found their places at small tables in the living room, dining room, and den. Hot rolls and ham biscuits were passed during the dinner, and a desert of fruit cake topped with whipped cream was served afterward.

After the enjoyable meal, the choir listened to music played on the record player. A delightful social period followed, during which the choir sang, and enjoyed solos by Mrs. Juanita Warren and B. S. Peeler, Jr.

Youth Choir Enjoys Supper At Peeler Home

On Friday night, January 13, at 7 o'clock, the Youth choir of Central Methodist church, were dinner guests of B. S. Peeler, Jr., and Mrs. B. S. Peeler, at the Peeler home. Over forty people, including youth workers and their husbands, also the pastor and his wife, enjoyed a delicious dinner of chicken salad with all the trimmings served buffet style in the dining room.

The group, including members from both the Intermediate MYF and the Senior MYF, enjoyed a period of fellowship accompanied by music from the record player. By request, B. S. Peeler, Jr., sang several popular solos, which were enjoyed by all.

MYF To Have Film Strip Sunday 7 P. M.

Following Youth choir rehearsal (which begins at 6:15 o'clock Sunday night) both groups of the MYF at Central Methodist church are to have a film strip, "Operation J-3" shown in the sanctuary at 7 o'clock.

Adults who wish to come early and remain for the evening service at 7:30 o'clock are invited also. This picture tells the story of young Christians who answered the challenge to serve in Japan for three years teaching, working in social centers, directing recreational programs and assisting in evangelistic work.

The youth council is to meet next week, time and place to be announced Sunday.

Kincaids Hosts To Band Directors

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold W. Kincaid entertained the directors of the band association at a perfectly appointed four course luncheon at their attractive home on Church street last Thursday.

For the occasion colorful arrangements of early spring flowers were cleverly used. The dining room table with its snowy white linen cloth and January jasmine made a perfect setting for the delicious meal.

Those enjoying the Kincaid's hospitality were, Band-parents: Joe Hedden, Jay Patterson, B. N. Barnes, Mrs. H. E. Neisler, and Mrs. H. D. Ward; Jayness, W. K. Mauney, Jr., Senior Woman's club, Mrs. Mack Gantt; Junior Woman's club, Mrs. J. B. Falls; American Legion, Miss Dorothy Hayes; Ladies, Dr. Paul Hendricks; American Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. Paul Mauney; Kiwanis: A. W. Kincaid.

After luncheon a short business meeting was held. The group pledged their support to Mr. Hedden, band leader, also to Mr. Kincaid for his interest and untiring efforts in bringing the Kings Mountain band to the front.

La Fete Club With Mrs. Y. F. Throneburg

The La Fete rook club was entertained Friday night at the home of Mrs. Y. F. Throneburg.

The evening was spent in an enjoyable and lively session of bridge and lovely bowls of spring flowers were used as decorations. Tables were appointed for refreshments. Each table was centered with a green candle tied with yellow ribbon surrounded with yellow flowers. A salad and sweet course was served.

Four progressions of rook ensued, with Mrs. J. K. Willis winning high score prize, and Mrs. H. R. Patron low score prize.

Mrs. Buddy Lackey Fetes Queen of Clubs

The new home of Mrs. Buddy Lackey in Fallston was the scene of a lovely party Tuesday night, when she entertained the Queen of Clubs.

Spring flowers were used to add a festive air. A very attractive and tempting party plate was served.

Mrs. Lackey's prizes went to Miss Louann Herndon, high, Mrs. Johnnie Plunk, second high, and Miss Bobbie Simmons received the floating prize.

A very enjoyable meeting of the Study Club was held with Mrs. O. W. Myers Tuesday night.

Cut spring flowers and potted plants were used in the living room, Japanese Odience in the entrance hall and mixed fruits in an antique cut glass bowl on the dining table.

There was a pleasant social half hour at the beginning of the meeting. During this time Mrs. Myers was assisted in serving a congealed salad course with party accessories and Russian tea, passing fruit cake topped with whipped cream and cherries.

Mrs. N. F. McGill, president presided over the business meeting.

Mrs. C. F. Thomasson was in charge of the program. She presented Mrs. W. T. Weir, who in a very charming and interesting way told of the life of Margaret Mitchell.

Wishes and cookies to the nine members present.

Motorists Slow Buying '50 Tags

RALEIGH — Although approximately two weeks remain in which motorists may purchase their 1950 license plates, less than half have obtained their new tags, the North Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles reported today.

The delay on the part of motor vehicle owners in purchasing their 1950 plates makes it evident that a rush will occur at the 73 the January 31 deadline. Approximate offices in the State as of this date, the Department stated.

Approximately 450,000 tags have been sold to date. More than a million motor vehicles are operating in the State and each must carry a new license after midnight of January 31. Motorists apprehended after that time without the 1950 plates on their vehicles will be subject to prosecution. The 1950 tags went on sale December 1.
