Davidson High School News

The new year has brought a new spirit into the Davidson School family. We are very happy to have a number of new pupils to join us in many of our grades. The pupils and members of the faculty are putting on efforts to raise money to help take care of the school expenses and pay for some equipment gotten to be used by members of the school family. For the first time in the school a Romeo-Juliet contest is being held among the boys and girls of Davidson. Five prizes are offered to the ones reporting the highest sums of money. Some of the contestants are: Cladie Martin and Wilbur Taylor, Louis Martin and Peggy Byers, Howard
