WSCS Birthday Dinner Successful

A large and appreciative crowd enjoyed the delicious turkey dinner and the social companionship at the Central Methodist church Wednesday night when the Fellowship Division of the Woman's Society of Christ and the World entertained with a birthday dinner.

Tables for children of school and pre-school age were arranged by Mrs. Charles Harrill and Mrs. Hilliard Black. School age was suggestive of the first day of school. Pre-school featured a country home with barns, sheds all kind or farm machinery, chickens, pigs, lambs, cows, etc. Birthday cakes were also part of the decorations.

Mesdames H. C. Mayes and H. T. Fulton were hostesses at the January table. The snowy white cloth, the snow man and his wife with greenery was a typical winter scene.

February hostesses Mrs. E. W. Griffin and Mrs. G. F. Lattimore had arranged a Valentine table in the center was a large white birthday cake on a felly lace valentine, silver candle holders with red tapers on valentines, composites of valentine candy ruby goblets and china with a red design made a very festive Valentine setting.

March hostesses, Mesdames Jay Patterson, C. J. Gault, and Bill Craig, had a very clever table arrangement carrying out the shamrock motif. The birthday cake, iced in green and white ivy cut out shamrock leaves were used over the table, green candles tied with yellow ribbon and china with a green design completed the decorations.

April hostesses, Mrs. Sam Howell and Mrs. Edith Goforth had their birthday cake surrounded with a ring of split pink carnations flanked on either side with pink candles in crystal holders, small crystal dishes of floating carnations on a mound of fern with china with a pink design made a very "springy" table.

May hostesses, Mrs. I. B. Goforth and J. R. Davis centered their table with a May pole in pastel shades the little girls in the various colored dresses made lovely display. Pink candles in crystal holders were used on either end of the table.

June hostesses, Mrs. Ralph Mauney and Miss Winifred Fulton carried out the bridal colors of green and white in the candles and china. A large three-tiered cake with miniature bride and groom and attendants was typical of June.

July hostesses, Mrs. Y. F. Throneburg and Mrs. Baxter Paysour had a lovely table featuring red, white, and blue. A large Uncle Sam's hat in the center flanked with Uncle Sam's and flags red candles, cakes on each end of the table iced in white with an American flag made of icing surrounded with miniature

OPEN SEASONS

It was pointed out this week for the benefit of Kings Mountain area hunters that the seasons on rabbit and quail are still open and will not close until Jan. 31st.

W. E. Woody, county game protector, made the mention.

Many hunters were evidently under the impression that the seasons on rabbit and quail ended when dove season went out on January 15th.

BASKETBALL

Things are looking up in the Kings Mountain high school basketball world.

The "varsity" boys team won over Cherryville Tuesday night and the "B" team has hit for two straight. Several of the "B" team show promise and Coach Shu Carlton thinks they'll be ready by next year.

The "varsity" boys, an inexperienced squad with no lettermen returning from last year's outfit, are expected to shape up after they get several games under the belt.

Talking about basketball—that Overcash girl that hit it for 102 points, the other night was really burning the nets during the first half. An unusually tall girl—m'think it is 6-7—she had 79 points for the first 16 minutes, or an average of practically five ## points per minute.

WOW! —dad— Our bowl picks didn't set us out bragging immediately.

We hit the easy one, hit one sleeper, got caught along with the rest on the upset, and looked plum bad on two of them.

We were right on Rice over Carolina and Santa Clara over Kentucky; we missed on California who was upset by Ohio State; and we "stunk" on LSU (who lost to Oklahoma) and Missouri (who lost to Maryland).

Boyer Murray "scooper" Charlotte News Sports Ed. Furman Bisher on one reason why Carolina lost to Rice.

He was telling me the reason the day before Bish came out with it—don't know whether he told Bisher or not.

Reason was — "In those dark blue uniforms, Rice looked so much like Duke that it scared the daylight out of Carolina for three quarters."

So long.

Hatcheries and dealers serving the Chatham and Wilkes commercial broiler areas placed 277,000 chicks with producers during the week ended January 7. This is an increase of 80,000 over placements for the previous week.
