Dilling streets, a 1949 Oldsmobile owned and driven by Paul Stephenson Neely, 40, of Manchester, Ga., ploughed into the rear of a 1946 Plymouth driven by Boyce Elzie Goins, 38, and owned by Coley Freeman Taxi.

The taxi bumped a 1942 Dodge owned and driven by Melvin Young, 35, of Gastonia, which in turn bumped a Jeep delivery truck owned by Blalock Grocery and driven by Joe David Houser.

According to the police report the Jeep was heading east on East King street and had stopped, signalling a left turn. The Dodge and Plymouth had stopped behind the Jeep after making the correct signals. The Oldsmobile came roaring over the crest of a hill and hit the Plymouth. The brake skid marks of the Oldsmobile measured 75 feet, according to officers.

Mr. Neely, who told police he was going "fifty miles-per-hour" in a 35 mph speed zone when he saw the stopped cars, is free under $500 appearance bond and is charged with reckless driving.

Damage to the vehicles included $387 to the Plymouth and $25 to the Dodge, police said. At around 8:45 a. m. Wednesday a 1949 Ford belonging to J. W. Webster was damaged to the extent of $427 police said in a collision on West Mountain street with a 1931 Ford driven by Donald Patrick Wilson, of route two, Roy Alvin Haynes, 29, of Monte Vista drive, was driving the 1949 Ford which was traveling west on Mountain street when the other car, owned by Seth D. Wilson, pulled out of the circle between W. Mountain street and U. S. 74. Don Wilson said he did not see the other car until he was hit, police said.

The 1931 Ford was damaged in the left front and was not drivable. Officers Camp and Andrews said.

At around 1:05 p. m. Wednesday, police said a 1948 Frazier, driven by Howard Mack Moore, 26, Shelby Negro, failed to stop at the intersection of West Mountain street and U. S. 29 and hit a 1948 Ford going south on Battleground (U. S. 29).

The Ford was owned and driven by Dewey Martin Murray, 30, of Kings Mountain. The Frazier, police said, is owned by Moore's father, Mack Moore. Both cars were reported as "not drivable."

Later Wednesday afternoon a city garbage truck backed into an automobile damaging it slightly. On Monday at around 8:45 a. m., a 1944 GMC truck crashed into the left front of a 1949 Plymouth on North Piedmont avenue near Fulton street.

The truck, owned by P. P. Leventis, of Gastonia, was driven by Frank Monroe Sullivan, of Gastonia, and the Plymouth was owned and driven by John Gantt 65, of Kings Mountain.

Police said the Plymouth was stopping to make a left turn and the truck was passing when the Plymouth cut left into the truck.

Damage to the Plymouth was estimated at $200.

eer Area organization is the division of the area into districts rather than counties. At present we have three counties—Lincoln, Gastonia and Cleveland—with approximate population of 28,000, 150,000 and 80,000 respectively. The District would be a population line rather than a county one.

At the completion of the program Mrs. Cansler invited everyone into the church dining room where birthday cake and punch was served by Mrs. H. C. Mayes and other members of Membership Committee. The lovely decorations were in the traditional colors of yellow and green.

Mrs. Polly Williams, former leader of the Senior Scout Troop at Grace church, was presented a gift of pearls by the Leader's Club. This was a parting gift to Mrs. Williams who leaves this week to join her husband in Japan. This will be a loss to scouting locally, but a boom internationally, as Mrs. Williams has already expressed her intention to work with Scouts in Japan.
