West School PTA Met Wednesday

The P. T. A. of West school met Wednesday, February 15th with Mrs. Paul Hendricks, the president, presiding. The minutes were read by Annie Roberts, secretary. Roll call showed the third grade with the most mothers present. The loving cup given to P. T. A. by Mr. and Mrs. Ben T. Ballard in honor of Mr. Ballard's mother, Mrs. Bessie Weathers Ballard who was a former school teacher, will remain in the third grade room during February.

Mrs. Plato Heavner had charge of the devotional.

The scripture was taken from the first chapter of Ruth. She read an article on "My Brother," closing with an appropriate prayer.

Mrs. W. R. Craig had charge of the program. She gave an interesting talk on comic books, and Founders Day past presidents of West school present were recognized.

During the business meeting plans were made to serve a hamburger and hot dog supper on February 24th, proceeds going to help pay for projector just purchased by the school. After the meeting, tasty refreshments were served by Miss Carlisle Ware's second grade mothers.

Next Wednesday morning at ten o'clock the prayer service will be held in the home of Mrs. H. R. Nelsler with Mrs. W. H. Stender leading the discussion.

Queen Of Clubs Met Tuesday Night

Third of a series of prayer services was held Wednesday morning at the home of Mrs. W. L. Rameuse with ladies present.

The discussion was led by Mrs. W. L. Pressly.

Next Wednesday morning at ten o'clock the prayer service will be held in the home of Mrs. H. R. Nelsler with Mrs. W. H. Stender leading the discussion.

Miss Betty Mayes Shower Honoree

Mrs. Bob Bonham and Miss Verdelia Carroll entertained Tuesday night with a household shower at a special courtesy to Mrs. Betty Mayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton G. Burton.

Beautiful spring flowers were used to decorate the living and dining rooms. On her arrival the honoree was presented a corsage by the hostesses.

Bridal games were played and a pleasant evening of good fellowship enjoyed.

The hostesses were assisted in serving dainty refreshments.

Highlighting the evening's activities was showering the honoree with many lovely and useful gifts.

Miss Betty Wolfe, bride-elect, niece of Mrs. B. N. Barnes and Mrs. Aubrey Mauney was the inspiration of a lovely tea given Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Aubrey Mauney with Mrs. Mauney, Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Carl Davidson as hostesses. Bowls of daffodils, camellias and other spring flowers were used to create a beautiful decorative effect in the living room.

A large red satin bow on the front door was a reminder of the Valentine season.

Greetings were said at the door by Mrs. Carl Davidson, Mrs. B. N. Barnes received in the living room and presented guests to the receiving line which included the guest of honor, Miss Betty Wolfe and her mother, Mrs. H. B. Wolfe, of Charlotte, Mrs. Aubrey Mauney presented guests to Mrs. John Butler Plonk, Mrs. Henry Parks Nelsler and Mrs. George F. Latimore, Jr., recent brides.

Receiving in the hall were Mrs. W. T. Weir and Mrs. W. H. Stender, Mrs. Alexander Grants directed into the dining room. The tea table was a scene of beauty, covered with a white linen embroidered cloth. The central decoration was a low bowl of red carnations and skeleton hearts of red maline, silver candelabras holding red tapers were on either end of the table. The table was outlined with red satin ribbon caught at intervals with a shower of graduated red hearts. Silver platters of heart shaped cookies, Mexican pecan balls, silver compotes of nuts completed the appointments. On the buffet red magnolia leaves, nandina berries and red candles were employed to carry out the Valentine motif. Serving were Mrs. C. D. Blanton, Mrs. W. K. Crook, Mrs. Hubert Davidson, Mrs. W. B. Thompson, Mrs. Rowell Lane, Miss Jett Plonk, Miss Marie Lineberger and Miss Janet Scoggins.

Mrs. H. R. Hunnicutt directed guests into the sun porch. Receiving there were Mrs. Paul Mauney, Mrs. Hord and Mrs. S. A. Mauney. A coffee table was placed in one end of the room. This was overlaid with a handsome red taffeta cloth. From one end of the table from a silver service coffee was poured by Mrs. P. D. Patrick and served by Mrs. J. H. Patterson, Mrs. Billie Houser, and Mrs. F. T. Tatton, of Washington, D. C.

Goodbyes were said by Mrs. Jacob Mauney, and Mrs. Aubrey Clay of Waco.

Several hundred guests called between the hours of 3:30 and 5:30.
