The red-roughness of chapped skin is a menace to every woman's beauty—and this painful and unattractive condition is common during winter when you go so frequently from heated rooms into the icy outdoors—and Jack Frost is your constant companion in outdoor sports. That is why your face and hands need the soothing protection of the creams and lotions featured in our Beauty Department. So if you "see red" the next time you look into your mirror, come to Kings Mountain Drug Company for toiletries to keep your skin soft . . . smooth . . . youthful-looking in spite of winter's "red menace."
