Miss Zoe Falls Bride Of A. C. Dellinger

Miss Zoe Falls and Arlie Carl Dellinger, of Shelby, were married Saturday afternoon, February 18, at 4:30 in a simple but pretty and impressive wedding held at the home of the bride's parents in the Beth-Ware community.

Rev. P. D. Patrick, pastor of the bride, officiated. The living room mantle was decorated to serve as an altar for the speaking of the vows. Pine-tops were banked in front of the fireplace and a large arrangement of white gladioli and carnations was on the center of the mantle. Candelabras holding cathedral tapers completed the decorative effect.

The bride's marriage costume consisted of a beige suit worn with navy accessories. Her corsage was of red rosebuds.

Mrs. Dellinger is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shipp Falls. She is now employed by Belk's Department Store.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Dellinger of Gastonia. Mr. Dellinger is connected with Reserve Life Insurance and Lincoln National Life Insurance Companies.

Mr. and Mrs. Dellinger left immediately after the ceremony for a honeymoon in Charleston. They are making their home at the present with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Falls.

Only members of the two immediate families attended the ceremony.

MYF Sub-District Meets In Dallas

At the meeting of the MYF Sub-District meeting in Dallas, N. C., Thursday, Feb. 23, there were 12 present from Central church, and 11 present from Grace church here. The pastor of Concord Methodist church gave an interesting address on race relations, in which he said that the reason we do not love other people is that we do not understand them. The way to love them, he added, is to understand them.

Following the business session, refreshments were served in the basement, consisting of sandwiches, cup cakes, potato chips, and cokes.

Special Music At MYF Meeting

Twenty-nine were present Sunday morning in the youth chapel at Central Methodist church when the Senior MYF met for a worship program, "God and I," led by Jean Lynch. Special music was rendered by a trio, composed of Betty Falls, Betty Cash, and Bill Allen, who were accompanied by Barbara Gault at the piano. The selection, a Latvian folk song, "My God and I," was especially beautiful. One verse is reprinted below:

"My God and I go in the fields together.
We walk and talk as good friends should do.
We clasp our hands, our voices ring with laughter.
My God and I go in the meadow hue."

Mrs. Mauney Duplicate Hostess

Monday afternoon at her attractive cottage on East Gold street Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr., delightfully entertained the Duplicate bridge club and two invited guests, Mrs. H. R. Neisler and Mrs. W. K. Mauney.

Pictureque arrangements of peach blossoms and spring flowers were used to create a beautiful decorative effect in the living room where tables were placed for bridge.

After presentation of the prizes to Mrs. Howard Jackson and Mrs. Paul Neisler, the hostess served a very tasty salad course with dainty party accessories.

Mrs. Goforth Hostess To Tally-Ho Club

Mrs. L. B. Goforth, Jr., delightfully entertained the Tally-Ho members at her home Thursday night. Large bowls of lovely spring flowers were placed at vantage points in the living room where tables were placed for bridge.

After five progressions of bridge, rallies were added and compared. High score for the games was presented Miss Pat Ballard.

The hostess was assisted in serving a tasty party plate with an iced fruit drink.

Mrs. H. E. Lynch Bridge Hostess

Lovely bouquets of jonquils, spirea and Judas bud accented, the appointments in the living room where tables were arranged for bridge at the home of Mrs. Haywood E. Lynch on Thursday afternoon, when she was hostess to members of the Ace of Clubs and invited guests.

When scores were compiled Mrs. W. B. Thomson was presented high score prize with Mrs. L. E. Abbott winning second high. Those playing other than members were Mrs. Abbott, Mrs. Thomasson, Mrs. H. C. Mayes, Mrs. C. F. Thomasson, Sr.

The hostess served a congealed salad course, cheese biscuits, open-faced sandwiches with tea or coffee. Icebox cake was served for dessert.

Hi-Lo Club Met With J. C. Bridges

Entertaining at their home on Landing street Friday night Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bridges were hosts to the Hi-Lo bridge club and two invited guests, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Abbott.

Spring flowers in tones of yellow were used in the home. Four progressions of bridge was played with high score prize for ladies going to Mrs. Sam Stallings, high score for gentlemen to L. E. Abbott.

Bid and Bye Club Met With L. E. Abbotts

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Abbott entertained Saturday night, their guests being members of the Bid and Bye Club and one invited couple Mr. and Mrs. Paul Neisler.

Spring flowers in attractive arrangements were used throughout the home. Tables were appointed and upon arrival of all guests a sweet course was served.

When scores were tallied at the close of the evening games, high score was held by George Houser. Mrs. Paul Neisler received second high.
