Know Your Teacher

(Ed. Note: One of a series of articles written by the Public Relations Committee of the Kings Mountain chapter of the North Carolina Education Association.)

MISS LOIS WATSON
Miss Lois Watson, fourth grade teacher at Central school, is a native of Albemarle. This is her third year in Kings Mountain. She was educated at Albemarle high school and Appalachian State Teachers College from which she received a Bachelor of Science degree in Grammar

Grade Education. She is now working on a Master's degree.

Miss Watson is a member of the First Lutheran Church in Albemarle and affiliated with church organizations there as well as in Kings Mountain. She is a member of the Girl Scout town committee and is now taking a course to train scout leaders. She is president of the local unit of the North Carolina Education Association.

Some of her main interests are music, art and science. When asked about her teaching career she replied, "I like teaching. I love children. It is a joy to take the child in gentle hands and lead him into mystic lands where each new glory outshines the last."
