MYF To Meet Sunday With Ann Mayes

At 5:45 o'clock Sunday evening the Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship meets at the home of Ann Mayes for supper. Each member is asked to bring 30 cents for a special fund.

At 6:15 the program, "The Lenten Season," begins with Jo Ann Wright as program leader. Guest discussion leader will be Miss Elizabeth Hunt, local school teacher. Outside reports are to be given by Bill Allen and Dotty Smith.

Next Sunday morning at ten o'clock the Senior MYF meets in the youth chapel for a worship program to be led by Walter Griffin, with special reading by Randall Williamson. Soloist will be Jo Ann Falls, and John Warwick is to draw a copy of the picture, "The Omnipresent" to be used as worship center.

Last Sunday morning Nan Jean Gantt led a program, "We Would See Jesus," using the painting, "Head of Christ," as worship center, and spring flowers to decorate the chapel. Betty Cash gave a reading, "One Solitary Life."

Last Sunday evening, a hot dog supper was served in the church basement by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Neill and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stallings, counselors, preceding the meeting. At this meeting, the project of raising money for a special fund was begun. The program in the chapel, "The Calendar of Faith," was led by Patricia Prince, with guest speaker, Miss Alice Ridenhour, local school teacher.

The program committee met last week at the home of Mrs. Baxter Payseur to outline programs for the month of March and are meeting at the church each Wednesday evening to plan for the following Sunday.

Mrs. Arthur Hay Fetes One-High Club

A delightful meeting of the One-High Rook club was held in the home of Mrs. Arthur Hay Thursday night.

The living room softened with an open fire, held many floral arrangements of early spring flowers.

Tables were appointed and upon arrival of all guests Mrs. Hay was assisted in serving a salad-dessert course with hot tea.

Following four progressions of rook, the high score award was given to Mrs. W. M. Moorhead and the low prize winner was given to Mrs. P. D. Herndon.

Mrs. J. E. Anthony, Mrs. E. A. Harrill and Mrs. L. C. Parsons were invited guests of the hostess.

Miss Frances Payne Fetes Bridge Club

With only club members present Tuesday night, Miss Frances Payne was hostess to members of the Queen of Clubs at her home on the Cherryville road.

The home was decorated with assorted Spring flowers. Tallies in seasonable design were drawn and partners found for several progressions of bridge.

When scores were counted Mrs. A. A. Lackey, Jr., was found to hold the score nearest 1350 and was presented a gift. Miss Louann Herndon was also presented a gift for holding the score nearest 750.

A party plate of sandwiches, cookies, potato chips, pickles, and colas was served.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED—Mr. and Mrs. Wilmon Houston Payne announce the engagement of their daughter, Frances, to Andrew Clement Ramsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Lee Ramsey. The wedding will be an event of May 13.

Pre-Nuptial Party For Miss Simmons

Mrs. Charles Harrill and Miss Margaret Harmon entertained Thursday evening with a bridge and rook party as a pre-nuptial compliment to Miss Bobbie Simmons, bride-elect of April.

The entire lower floor of the home was thrown open for the occasion and for decorations, artistic displays of white carnations and glad hearts were found at vantage points throughout the rooms carrying out the color note of green and white.

When the guests had arrived, they assembled at small tables which were attractively arranged with white candles tied with white ribbon nestling in a bed of shamrock. Ice cream topped with a green cherry, individual cakes iced in white adorned with green shamrocks and coffee was served.

Tables were re-arranged and bridge was played in the living room and den, rook in the dining room. Four progressions of bridge and rook were enjoyed during the evening; scores were tallied and prizes awarded the winners. Miss Frances Payne received the high score in bridge. Miss Marlon Arthur, second high. In rook, Mrs. Paul Linder, excelled.

The hostess presented Miss

Simmons silver in her chosen pattern. Shering honors with Miss Simmons were Mrs. Robert Neill and Mrs. John Plonk, recent brides, these were also remembered with gifts of silver.

Out of town guests were Mrs. J. D. Simmons Rock Hill, Mrs. Paul Linder, Bessemer City, Mrs. Beck Wright, Grover, Miss Ida Holland and Miss Gene Scott, students at Limestone College, Gaffney.

Leaders Club Met At First Baptist Church

The Girl Scout Leader's Club met Tuesday night in the scout room of the First Baptist church.
