Entre-Nous Club Met With Mrs. B. S. Neill

Mrs. B. S. Neill was hostess Tuesday afternoon at bridge, her guests being members of the Entre-Nous Club.

Lovely spring flowers accentuated the appointments in the living room where two tables were arranged for an afternoon of bridge. Prior to the games a dessert course was served.

Mrs. Neill's prizes went to Mrs. O. O. Jackson and Mrs. H. C. Mayes, high and second high respectively.

Large Crowd At Club Night

Saturday night was regular monthly club night at the Country Club.

Dinner served buffet style, featured baked ham, barbecued chicken and delicious accessories with lemon cake for dessert was enjoyed by a large crowd.

Following dinner bridge and other entertainments were the pastime of the evening.

Bridge prizes went to Mrs. Tolly Shuford, high, and Mrs. Otto Williams, second high.

Study Club Meets At Crook Home

The attractive new home of Mrs. W. K. Crook was the very personification of spring with decorations of jonquils, hyacinths and other spring flowers on Tuesday night when members of the Home Arts Club and guests were entertained at a delightful meeting.

At the beginning of the party the hostess was assisted in serving creamed chicken, in paté shells, tomato aspic with tempting accessories and coffee, followed with a dessert course consisting of individual caramel tarts and whipped cream.

The president, Mrs. Fred Plonk, presided over the business. Roll was called and minutes of the previous meeting read and adopted.

Mrs. George Moss, program leader, presented Mrs. J. E. Herndon who returned recently from a trip to Cuba, with a store of knowledge and experience worthy to me, not only delighted but fascinated the members of the club with a talk on customs, traditions and business life of Cuba. Pictures of important buildings, churches, etc. were passed around for all to see.

Mrs. Harold Crawford and Mrs. Etie Powers delighted the club by singing, "When Irish Eyes are Smiling."

Mrs. Phillip Padgett Fetees Garden Club

Members of the Kings Mountain Garden Club voted to sponsor a project of planting dogwood trees in the city, at the meeting Wednesday when Mrs. Phillip Padgett entertained the club at the Country Club.

One hundred and thirty dogwood trees have already been sold. The club, under the leadership of Mrs. Hunter Neisler, has arranged with nurserymen to plant the trees at small cost. Any one interested in securing trees is asked to contact Mrs. Neisler or any club member.

The Kings Mountain Garden Club voted to inaugurate Garden Week, the date to be announced later. During Garden Week, club members will place flower arrangements in the Public Library and will sponsor a lecture by a prominent Garden Club authority to which the public will be invited. Club members also voted to join the State Federation of Garden Clubs. A contribution was made to the Red Cross by the club.

Following the business, "Color in the Yard," was the subject of a delightful discussion led by Mrs. H. C. Mayes. Annuals, biennials and perennials were discussed as to color effects, contrasts, and plantings in borders. Backgrounds, plantings, and garden design were also points that Mrs. Mayes illustrated with attractive posters.

The club room was a veritable fairland with numerous arrangements and specimen flowers. One lovely arrangement was peach blossoms combined with blue hyacinths in a pink and blue shell-shaped bowl. Another arrangement was crab apple blossoms with red tulips in an oblong green container.

During the social hour a delicious salad course with accessories was served.
