Large Crowd Attend Training School

The Training School for the newly elected officers of the local unit of the Women of the Church of Central District of Kings Mountain Presbyterian was held at the First Presbyterian church here Wednesday afternoon from three until five o'clock.

Eighty-five women were present from fifteen churches. Mrs. Paul Mauney, district chairman, presided at the meeting. Miss Josephine Culp gave the devotional. President of Kings Mountain Presbyterian gave special information of the whole Assembly.

The group was divided into classes taught by Mrs. P. D. Patrick, Mrs. George Riddle, Mrs. J. H. Knight, Mrs. Harris Boyd and Mrs. Quincey Howe.

A social hour was enjoyed after the classes adjourned.

Frances Hord Circle Met With Mrs. Neal

The Frances Hord circle met with Mrs. Fred Neal last Wednesday afternoon with twelve members and two visitors present. Mrs. C. D. Ware, circle leader, presided over the business session and also had charge of the program, as follows: "Was Christ's Death Necessary?" Mrs. DeWitt Patterson; "Why Did He Die?" Mrs. P. H. Hovis; "Home and The Cross," Mrs. Jake Hord. Mrs. Ware gave an interesting talk on "Peace."

ONE YEAR OLD—Having a good time posing for his picture is Larry Dean Anderson (above) who celebrated his first birthday March 17. Larry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Anderson, route 3, Kings Mountain.

The April meeting will be held with Mrs. Will White at her home on Fulton street with Mrs. Edd Hord acting as hostess. The circle will continue to meet in the homes of shut-ins and instead of serving refreshments at their meetings, donate the money for missionary work. Plans were made to send Sunshine Boxes to Mrs. Fred Neal and Mrs. Howard Jenkins.
