Miss Simmons Honored At Breakfast

Mrs. John Butler Plonk and Miss Betty Ford delightfully entertained at a wedding breakfast Saturday morning at the New South paying special compliment to Miss Barbara Simmons who was married to Walter Harmon Easter Sunday afternoon.

The central decoration of the table was a bowl of white carnations and lace fern. A delicious three-course breakfast was served to the honoree, Miss Simmons, her mother, Mrs. J. D. Simmons of Rock Hill, Miss Jean Scott of Charlotte, Miss Jane Bobbette Linder of Bessemer City, Misses Louann Herndon, Farness Payne, Mary Ann Beam and Charlotte Harrill.

Miss Simmons presented each of her attendants with white blbles which they carried in her wedding.

The hostess presented Miss Simmons with crystal in her chosen pattern.

Bid And Bye Club Met With L. E. Abbotts

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Abbott were delightful hosts on Saturday night to the Bid and Bye Club entertaining at their home in Crescent Hill.

Flowering shrubs, pansies, Easter lilies and colored eggs were used in decorations. Tables were appointed for refreshments and upon arrival of guests strawberry short cake, ice cream topped with whipped cream was served.

When scores were tallied, Mrs. J. B. Simpson was awarded high score price with second high going to Milton Fryer.

Mr. And Mrs. Ramsey Hosts At Silver Anniversary Party

Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey were hosts Saturday evening at their attractive home here at a reception held in celebration of their silver wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Boyce Ware of Kings Mountain met guests at the front door as they arrived and introduced them to the receiving line in the living room which included Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey and the latter's stepmother, Mrs. O. O. Day, and sister, Mrs. James Young, both of Atlanta, Ga. Mrs. Ramsey's costume for the occasion was a dinner gown of white crepe with which she wore silver costume jewelry, necklace and earrings, which were an anniversary gift from her husband. She wore a shoulder corsage of red rosebuds. Other friends helping Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey to receive and entertain at the party were Mrs. Charlie Moss and Mrs. William Bialock. Many arrangements of gladioli and pansies were used for decoration in the living room and gift room. In the dining room a white linen cloth covered the refreshment table which was beautifully decorated with a three-tiered

Miss Wolfe, Mr. Paules Are United In Marriage

Of much interest to her friends in Kings Mountain was the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Mauney Wolfe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman B. Wolfe of Charlotte, and William Roger Paules of York, Pa., in a beautiful ceremony Saturday night in St. Mark's Lutheran church. Rev. Walter B. Freed officiated.

Easter lilies and greenery formed the background for the vows. The lilies and woadwarta fern were on the choir rail, on the altar, and marked the pews for special guests. The altar rail was intertwined with smilax. Numerous seven-branched candelabra held white tapers.

The wedding music was presented by Mrs. Aubrey Mauney, organist, and Robert R. Rhyne, vocalist. Before the ceremony, Mrs. Mauney played Schubert's "Serenade" theme from the "Piano Concerto in A Minor" by Grieg, "Berceuse" from "Joyceelyn" by Godard, "Andante Can-white anniversary cake topped with silver bells, a bowl of red roses, and white tapers in triple crystal candelabra. The cake was cut and served with ice cream, punch, salted nuts and mints. The affair was held between 8 and 11 o'clock and around 100 friends of the hosts called to felicitate them on the happy occasion.

Mrs. Ramsey before marriage was Miss Glayds Day of Greenville, S. C. Mr. Ramsey was born and reared in Kings Mountain, a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ramsey, former residents of that city who now live in Gastonia.

The Ramseys are great flower lovers and their flower garden is a source of great pleasure to both them and their friends throughout the flowering season.

tables' from the "Quartet in D Major" by Tschafkowsky, and "Meditation from 'Thais.'" During the ceremony she played Debussy's "Rexie." Mr. Rhyne sang "I Love Thee," "Take Thou This Rose," and "O Perfect Love." The bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" was used for the procession and the wedding march from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" for the recessional.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Mr. Paules was his son's best man. Ushers were Stanley Saunders of High Point, Jack Anderson Pitt of Westfield, N. J., James T. Knotts of Albemarle, and George Wolff, Norris W. Crigler, and Phillip Edward Paules, brother of the bridegroom all of Charlotte.

The bride wore an original gown of white duchess satin, featuring a bertha embroidered with pearls in a cut-out design, giving an off-shoulder effect. The fitted bodice was fastened in the back with loops and buttons, as were the long sleeves tapering to points over the hands. The full skirt extended into a cathedral train, and her veil of imported bridal illusion was worn with a diara of pearls designed to match the bertha. She carried a bouquet of white sweetpeas, feathered white carnations, and white marble centered with a white orchid. Her only ornament was a pearl necklace, gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Anna Wolf was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Juanita Wolf, sister of the bride, Miss Nancy Ann Paules, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Jean Cushman, and Mrs. Stewart B. Blanton, all of Charlotte; Miss Peggy Ann Mauney of Kings Mountain, and Mrs. Clifford P. Fisher of Rockwell. Flower girls were Martha Jean

Fisher and April White. Kenneth Barnes was the ringbearer, and William P. Brandon was acolyte. A reception was held in the social hall of the church after the ceremony.
