ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED—The Reverend and Mrs. Charles Elmore Ridenhour, of Dallas, announce the engagement of their daughter, Alice Victoria, above, of Kings Mountain, to the Reverend Worth David Wise, son of the Reverend and Mrs. Walter Daniel Wise, of Concord. The wedding will take place in mid-summer.

Methodist To Have Covered Dish Supper

At Central Methodist church Sunday afternoon at six o'clock there will be a covered dish supper for the members and their families. Immediately following the meal the children, young people and adults will meet in groups for a discussion. The Young Adult Fellowship class under the direction of Sam Stallings will be in charge of the adult discussion: "Acres of Diamonds." At 7:30 the regular worship service will be held in the Sanctuary with the sermon by the pastor.

Double Deck Club With Mrs. Moorhead

Mrs. W. M. Moorhead very graciously entertained members of the Double Deck bridge club at her home Tuesday night. Sweet peas, snapdragons, pansies and roses were effectively used in the home. Tables were appointed and upon the arrival of guests a frozen fruit salad, sandwiches, pickles, potato chips and Macaroni cup cakes were served with tea. When scores were compared the hostess high score gift went to Mrs. J. N. Gambie with Mrs. Ben H. Goforth receiving second high.

May Fellowship Day At Grace Church

A large number of women representing the different churches in Kings Mountain gathered at the Grace Methodist church last Friday afternoon to observe May Fellowship Day.

Guests were invited to the dining room by members of the hostess church and a social period enjoyed before the meeting.

Mrs. Aubrey Mauney, president of the Kings Mountain Group of Church Women presided. In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. J. E. Herndon, corresponding secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting. Reports were given by Mrs. J. L. McGill on days observed during the year, Mrs. J. E. Mauney reported from the membership committee, and Miss Lula Mae Teague gave the treasurer's report.

Mrs. E. W. Griffin, Mrs. P. D. Patrick and Mrs. B. D. Ratterree were appointed to assist with the Negro work. Mrs. C. D. Blanton was appointed Mission Study chairman with a lady to be appointed from each church to assist her.

Mrs. B. N. Barnes was elected vice-chairman, Mrs. E. T. Platt, recording secretary, and Mrs. H. C. Mayes, Historian.

Mrs. Jimmie Simpson and Mrs. P. D. Herndon gave a little skit on the magazine, "Church Women." Mrs. Joe Evans stressed the importance of reading this magazine.

Mrs. David Hamrick was in charge of the program on "Our Daily Bread." Mrs. W. L. Pressly gave the devotion from Matthew fifth and sixth chapters. Others taking part on the program were Miss Lula Mae Teague, Mrs. Phillip Padgett, and Mrs. Claud Hambricht. Franklin Pethel sang the "Beatitude" while collection was being taken. An open forum was held discussing "Our Part in World Economy."

The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. McFadden.

One High Rook Club Met In Kincaid Home

A delightful meeting of the One High Rook Club was held last Thursday night with Mrs. A. W. Kincaid. The home was especially lovely with the floral arrangements of iris, lemon lilies, syringia, and snapdragons.

Prior to the games the hostess served congealed salad, chicken sandwiches, potato chips with tea, passed a frozen sweet course. Each table was centered with small vase of flowers.

Spring garden tallies were drawn and places found for the games. During the progressions assorted candies were served. After the fourth progression cokes and mixed nuts were passed.

High score for club members went to Mrs. J. H. Arthur with Mrs. W. G. Grantham receiving low. Mrs. Joe Evans received guest high and Mrs. L. L. Benson, low.

The M. E. Stantons Bridge Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Stanton, Jr., entertained at two tables of bridge Saturday evening. The living room was artfully decorated with a profusion of peonies, apple blooms, and shasta daisies.

After a delightful dessert course and punch served, bridge was in play during four progressions. When scores were tallied Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Carpenter, Jr., were winners of the couples high score prize. Mrs. Carpenter was also winner of the ten o'clock high score prize.

Others enjoying the hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Snow, Mr. and Mrs. Packard Elliott of Shelby.

Junior-Seniors Enjoy Banquet

Friday, May 5, at 8 p. m., juniors, seniors, board members, and faculty boarded the good ship "Mountaineer" for the social event of the school year, the Junior-Senior banquet.

Chief Steward Fred Tate was on hand to welcome all passengers and to assist them aboard. Once inside the "Mountaineer," the passengers were escorted to their places by stewards and stewardesses Donald Flowers, Bobby Goforth, Charles Painter, Dickey Webb, Barbara Gault, Phyllis Ware, Anne Mayes, Jean Owens, and Paylene Falls.

The banquet tables, set for one hundred fifty-five, were attractively decorated with miniature planes. Place cards, individual salt and pepper shakers, individual packages of sugar, and a block and gold memo indicated each place setting.

After the invocation by Mr. B. N. Barnes, toastmaster, Billy Shytle welcomed the guests aboard. The response was given by Curtis Wright. Toasts to the faculty, board members and stewards and stewardesses were given by John Warlick, Valine Baily, and Raymond Goforth. Responses were made by Mr. Rowell Lane and Mrs. Haywood E. Lynch. A male quartet composed of Bobby Martin, Walter Griffin, Jake Hord and Clifton Morgan sang "Come, Josephine, in my Flying Machine." As a conclusion, both passengers and crew joined in singing "Off We Go."

The Junior-Senior banquet was under the direction of Miss Janet Scoggins and Miss Helen Logan.

Senior MYF To Have Weiner Roast

The Senior MYF of Central Methodist church is having a weiner roast Monday evening, May 15, at 6 o'clock, and will meet at the church to go from there to the country. On the food committee are Doty Smith, Bobbie Grantham, Walter Griffin, and Bob Goforth. Walter and Bob are also on the recreation committee to plan games. In charge of campfire building will be Randy Williamson and Phillip Dye. On the transportation committee are Bobbie Grantham, Walter Griffin, Don Bumgardner, Betty and Jean Cash, Don Patterson, and others. In case of rain, the young people will meet in the church basement.

Of the 347,000 veterans taking on-the-farm training throughout the entire 48 states, more than one-fourteenth, or over 25,000, are on North Carolina farms.

Mrs. B. A. Murray Rook Club Hostess

The home of Mrs. B. A. Murray was in festive mood with sweet peas and snapdragons Tuesday night when she was hostess to the La Fete rook club. Tables were laid and a tempting dinner plate was served prior to the games. The three tables were rearranged and an evening of rook was enjoyed with high score award going to Mrs. E. T. Platt, Mrs. J. G. Darracott was runner up for second high.

As it was Mrs. Platt's birthday the club remembered her with a lovely gift. Mrs. J. H. Brendall was invited in to share the dinner.

Mother's Day Play To Be Given My MF

In the youth chapel Sunday morning, the Senior MYF is to have a Mother's Day Play. "It Works at Home, too," with Doris Jolly as leader. The cast in the play includes Nan Jean Gantt as the mother, Mrs. Barnett; Randall Williamson as Mr. Barnett; Patricia Prince as Betty Barnett; and Dickey Croker as Bob Barnett. Last Sunday morning Bill Allen presented a program, "Why I Believe in the Church," assisted by Don Patterson.

On Sunday evening at the Senior MYF meeting of the Family Fellowship Period, Barbara Gault
