Herald "House-of-the-Week"

THE COLBORNE is a narrow house with the wide front to the street. It has a low hip roof and wide overhanging eaves in the popular ranch style, and is set close to the ground. Exterior walls have wide siding. The roof has asphalt shingles.

Three bedrooms and bath are on one side, a service are on other. The living room extends through the house for a two-way view. A door opens into yard. The dining alcove is part of the living room.
 Kitchen closets are on two walls, leaving dining space under side window. Stove is on inside wall next to fireplace.
 Bedroom closets are built-in wardrobe type. Both entrances have coat closets, and the bathroom a linen closet.
 Dimensions are 46 feet by 24 feet. Floor area is 1,092 square feet, cubage 20,208 cubic feet, including a full basement.
 For further information about THE COLBORNE, write the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minn.

Bounty To Be Paid For Crow's Heads

Robert Gidney will receive crow's heads at the courthouse for the Cleveland county wildlife club, and pay bounties on them.
 The county commissioners have agreed to underwrite 15 cents of the 25 cents bounty on each crow's head.
 These bounties will be paid in the period from May 1 to June 15, it was announced today by C. C. Horn, president of the wildlife club.
 Last year bounties were paid on 1,237 heads.
