Miss Payne Honored At Breakfast

Mrs. Walter Harmon and Miss Louann Herndon delightfully entertained at a wedding breakfast Saturday morning at the New South as a special courtesy to Miss Frances Payne who was married to Ted Ramsey at 5:30 in the Presbyterian church.

The central decoration of the table was a bowl of snapdragons. A delicious three course breakfast was served the honoree, Miss Payne, her mother, Mrs. W. H. Payne, Miss Betty Lynch, Miss Carolyn Kincaid, Bessemer, City Mrs. David Neill, Misses Nancy and Betty Carroll, Asheboro, Miss Jo Culp, Miss Pat Harris and Mrs. J. L. Ramsey.

Miss Payne presented her bridesmaids white horse hair braid hats which they wore in the wedding, Rhinestone bracelets to Miss Culp, organist and Miss Harris, vocalist. The hostesses presented Miss Payne a corsage of white split carnations upon her arrival, also china in her chosen pattern.

Bridge Party At Stanton Home

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Stanton entertained with three tables of bridge Saturday evening. The home was decorated with giant poppies and double larkspur. Upon arrival guests were served a dessert course with punch.

At the close of five progressions, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Finger were holders of couples high score, and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Fryer received couples consolation prize.

Couples other than the above mentioned enjoying this hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stallings, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Thomason, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Howard of Gastonia.

Mrs. David Neill Fetes Queen of Clubs

Mrs. David Neill was hostess on Tuesday night when her guests were members of the Queen of Clubs, Mrs. C. A. Goforth, Jr., and Mrs. Red Morrison. Mrs. Henry Nelsler was welcomed as a new member of the club.

At the conclusion of the progressions the following were presented prizes for the evening. High score was presented to Miss Louann Herndon, low score to Mrs. Robert Neill. The hostess served London Mist, cookies and nuts.

Couple Feted At Cake Cutting

Last Thursday night prior to the Kimbrell-Spake rehearsal, Mrs. Pauline Thrift, Mrs. David Burton and Mrs. Frank Rippey entertained members of the wedding party, the members of the two immediate families and a few close friends at a cake cutting at the home of Mrs. Thrift.

Lovely arrangements of roses were used throughout the home. The dining room table was covered with a snowy white cloth. The bride's cake, a beautiful creation in three tiers topped with a miniature bride and groom, was in the center of the table. On one end of the table a punch bowl nestled in a bed of roses and fern. On the other end of the table were composites of minis and nuts.

White ribbon encircled the table. On each corner were bows of ribbon and fern. Punch was served by Mrs. J. W. Phillip. After the bride and groom had cut the traditional first piece, the cake was cut and served by Mrs. Luco Jenkins.

Pictures were made of the happy couple before they left for the rehearsal.

W. M. S. Met With Mrs. George White

The monthly meeting of the W. M. S. of the Second Baptist church was held Monday night in the home of Mrs. George White. Nine members were present.

Mrs. Marvin Wright gave the devotional, Mrs. S. O. Kirby, Mrs. T. W. Ledford and Mrs. T. F. Ware gave the program in the form of a playlet, "Radio In Missions."

Mrs. White assisted by Miss Ethel Hinson served refreshments. The June meeting will be with Mrs. Marvin Wright.
