MR. AND MRS. RALPH LEE SPAKE

Miss Barbara Louise Kimbrell Wed Friday To R. L. Spake

Beauty and reverence characterized the wedding of Miss Barbara Louise Kimbrell, daughter of Mrs. George W. Kimbrell, and the late Mr. Kimbrell and Ralph Lee Spake, son of Mrs. S. C. Spake and the late Mr. Spake of Grover, in a candlelight ceremony at 8 o'clock Friday night, May 12, in the First Wesleyan Methodist church, Rev. J. W. Phillips, pastor of the bride, officiated.

The vows were spoken before a background of stately palms. In the center back was a basket of white gladioli flanked on either side with palms. Seven branched candelabras holding tapering candles were used across the back and sides forming a pyramid. In front of these were white floor baskets of gladioli. The chancel was veiled in white and artistically overlaid with feathery fern. The special pews were marked with satin bows.

Mrs. Luco Jenkins, pianist, and Rev. A. D. Argo, vocalist, rendered a program of wedding music.

Gives Bride in Marriage
The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Ray Kimbrell, and the bridegroom had his brother, James Spake, as best man. Ushers were Rufus Clark and Willard Upchurch.

The bride wore a gown of white bridal satin. The bodice featured a scalloped yoke of mouseline edged with a butterfly fold creating an off-the-shoulder effect. The sleeves tapered to calla points over the wrists and tiny covered buttons were used down the back of the bodice, which was joined to a gathered skirt that ended in a full train scalloped around the bottom. Her tiered finger length veil of illusion was worn with a tiara of seed pearls in heart shapes. She carried a white Bible with a spray of white flowers and fern with a white orchid in the center showered with white satin streamers. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, gift of the groom.

Mrs. Rufus Clark, matron of honor, wore a yellow dress designed similar to the bride's in off shoulder effect and full skirt.

Bridesmaids were Miss Blanche Carroll, Miss Geneva Bell, Miss Helen Paysour, and Miss Edith Bookout. Their dresses were made identical to those of the matron of honor, two were in blue, two in pink. They carried arm bouquets of gladioli with large satin bows. They wore pearl earrings and necklaces.

Frances Kimbrell, niece of the bride was flower girl. Her dress was of yellow taffeta designed as the other attendants.

Miss Marcelle Spake, niece of the groom and Mrs. Hazel Whitesides presided at the register.

Mrs. Kimbrell, mother of the bride, was attired in navy blue with pink accessories and a shoulder corsage of carnations.

After the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to points south. For traveling, the bride wore a white shaklan suit with white accessories and a white orchid shoulder bouquet.

Upon their return they will make their home on the Shelby Road.

The bride received her education in Parker District schools, Greenville, S. C. She is now employed by the Mauney Hosiery Mills, Inc.

The bridegroom received his education in Mountain View schools in South Carolina. He served 23 months in the U. S. Navy during World War II. He is employed by Neisler Mills, Inc. A number of out-of-town guests attended the wedding.

Accorded Courtesy With Bridge Party

Miss Alice Ridenhour was the inspiration of a lovely bridge and hearts party Monday night given by the teachers in the Kings Mountain teachers' association.

A variety of snapdragons, roses, sweet peas and larkspur were used in very clever and unique arrangements for decorations.

In the dining-room a large umbrella in green and white was used on the table surrounded with white flowers and many prettily wrapped packages. These were presented the honoree and upon opening them she found miscellaneous gifts from the friends present.

Sharing honors with Miss Ridenhour was Miss Jo Culp, bride-elect of late summer.

The high score gift prize in bridge went to Miss Janet Scoggins, low score to Miss Culp. Mrs. Hill Carpenter was high score winner in hearts with Miss Margaret Goforth winning the bingo prize.

Molded ice cream lilies, individual cakes decorated in roses and coffee were served.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Charles Ridenhour, mother of the honoree, and Miss Lillian Cline, an aunt from Concord.

Margrace Club Offering Prize

Madames John Cloninger, Walter Woodward, Mrs. M. B. Caldwell, Mrs. Wyatt were hostesses for the May meeting of the Margrace Woman's Club held at the club house last Friday evening.

Mrs. C. W. Falls, president, presided over the meeting. Attractive arrangements of mixed spring flowers were used in the club lounge.

The club voted to give $10 for the cancer fund at the meeting several weeks back, and also voted to give a prize of $10 for the most attractive yard in the village to be judged at a later date.

The hostesses served a very attractive party plate. Spring colors of green, pink and blue were carried out in tin plates and napkins. The club is planning a covered dish supper to be held at the club house Saturday evening, June 10, at 7:30. Hundreds of the club members will be invited.

E. T. Platt has covered the Memorial hospital, Charlotte, for treatment and observation.
