Twin-Table Club Met In Hambright Home

Mrs. Claud Hambright was a delightful hostess on Tuesday night when her guests included members of the Twin Table Bridge club and one additional guest, Mrs. L. P. Stowe.

The living room was prettily decorated with mixed summer flowers. A special beauty spot in the room was an arrangement of deep red roses.

Mrs. Hambright's prizes went to Mrs. O. W. Myers who scored highest, Mrs. L. P. Stowe, second high, and the consolation prize to Mrs. P. D. Herndon.

After the progressions the hostess assisted by her daughter, Jane, and Mrs. L. P. Stowe, served a frozen fruit salad with ribbon sandwiches, ritz crackers, pickled apples and a fruit drink.

Queen of Clubs Met With Peggy Arthur

Miss Peggy Arthur entertained the Queen of Clubs bridge club and one additional guest, Mrs. Fred McDaniel, at her home Tuesday night.

The floral decorations were emphasized very beautifully in colorful bowls of mixed summer flowers with glads predominating. The tables were appointed for refreshments. Each held a miniature vase of flowers. Pecan pie with ice cream was served.

Mrs. Fred McDaniel was high scorer, Mrs. Bill Brymer runner-up for second high, and Mrs. David Neill received the floating prize.

The hostess presented Mrs. Bill Brymer, nee Miss Louann Herndon, with silver in her chosen pattern.

Mrs. J. K. Willis Bridge Club Hostess

Mrs. J. K. Willis entertained members of the Double Deck bridge club at her home Tuesday night.

Numerous arrangements of glads were used in the party rooms. Tables were appointed for refreshments, each centered with a small vase of flowers, and upon arrival of guests a delicious salad plate with accessories was served.

When scores were tallied after the progressions it was revealed Mrs. W. M. Moorhead held high with Mrs. Wilson Crawford second high. Each were presented attractive trophies.

Mrs. H. S. Blackmer Bridge Club Hostess

Members and guests of the Tuesday afternoon bridge club were entertained this week at the Country Club with Mrs. H. S. Blackmer, as hostess.

The club was especially pretty for the delightful occasion with beautiful floral arrangements used throughout the downstairs rooms of glads and mixed summer flowers.

At the conclusion of the progressions the following were presented prizes for the afternoon. Club high to Mrs. G. E. Still, second high to Mrs. R. H. Webb, visitors high to Mrs. M. A. Ware.

A salad and sweet course was served when cards were laid aside. Cakes were served during the progressions.

Mrs. M. A. Ware, Mrs. Carl Mauney and Mrs. Jacob Mauney were invited guests of the hostess.

Mrs. L. A. Hoke Bridge Hostess

Mrs. L. A. Hoke entertained her bridge club at her home Tuesday afternoon. Tables were placed for bridge on the porch and were laid for refreshments when the members arrived ginger ale, ice cream and cookies were served.

Guests found their places and a pleasant afternoon was spent playing bridge.

Iced colas were served during the progressions.
