Dixon Circle II In July Meeting

Circle number Two of the Dixon Presbyterian church held its July meeting at the home of Gertrude Farris.

There were fourteen girls present and an honored guest, John Reagan, who is the summer pastor, taught the Bible Study which was on Prayer and Psalms.

After the meeting the hostess served delightful refreshments.

Miss Ruby Putnam Bride of W. R. Hines

The Calvary Baptist church at Rutherfordton was the scene of a lovely wedding Sunday, June 25, at 4 o'clock when Miss Ruby Putnam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Putnam of Rutherfordton, became the bride of William R. Hines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon E. Hines of Spindale. Rev. Watson Abrams, pastor of the church, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

The vows were spoken before an altar banked with Oregon fern, southern greenery, and a sunburst arrangement of white gladiolus. Gothic candelabra holding cathedral tapers were used. The pews for special guests were marked with satin ribbons and plumosa fern.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Geo. Blanton, pianist, of Shelby, and Hoyt Abrams, vocalist of Gastonia, presented a program of nuptial music.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, A. H. Putnam, wore a street length dress of white taffeta and nylon net with a white picture hat and linen accessories. She carried a cascade of bouquet of miniature carnations, stephanotis, and centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Alvin Putnam was matron of honor. She wore a pink dress similar to that of the bride. She carried a semi-cascade bouquet of gardenias.

Misses Judy Hord of Shelby and Charlene Hord of Forest City were flower girls. They wore white organdy with green velvet sashes and head-dresses of green net and daisies.

The ushers were Alvon H. Putnam of Raleigh, brother of the bride; Birch Callahan, Jr., Eugene Hines, brother of the groom, and Dewitt Frady of Rutherfordton. The groom had as best man, Don Hensley of Gastonia, former college mate.

Mrs. Putnam, mother of the bride, wore a beige dress with navy accessories. Her corsage was of deep pink carnations. Mrs. Hines, mother of the groom, wore a navy crepe dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of yellow carnations.

After receiving the guests in the vestibule of the church, the couple left for a wedding trip. Returning, they will reside at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Hines is a niece of both Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Putnam, Mr. W. W. Putnam of Kings Mountain and Mrs. L. G. Hord, formerly of Kings Mountain.
