Tuesday Club Meets With Mrs. Ramseur

Mrs. W. L. Ramseur was hostess on Tuesday to members of her bridge club and two invited guests, Mrs. Paul Hendricks and Mrs. Don Blanton. Glads and mixed flowers were used as room decorations. A salad and sweet course was served during the progressions. At the conclusion of the progressions when tallies were compared, Mrs. H. S. Blakmer had scored highest and received an attractive gift.

Study Club Meets With Mrs. Patterson

A musical program and highlights of a vacation trip were features of the July meeting of the Study Club held Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. I. G. Patterson. Miss Frances Summers delighted the group by singing two numbers, "Jennie With The Light Brown Hair," Foster, and "Without A Sun," Youman. She was accompanied by Mrs. N. F. McGill. Mrs. Paul Mauney told of a recent trip to Manteo and other points of interest in the eastern part of the state. The program was arranged by Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. N. F. McGill, president, presided over the business. She urged the members to see that the books were passed on time. A frozen fruit salad course with a fruit drink and assorted cakes was served and the members and following guests: Miss Summers, Mrs. Harry Moore and Mrs. B. D. Ratterree.

The I. B. Goforths, Jr. Bridge Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Goforth, Jr. entertained with three tables of bridge Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Goforth.

A profusion of mixed flowers in very artistic arrangements were used as a decorative note for the party.

Bridge was played progressively with high score prizes going to Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Kerns.

MRS. WILLIAM RUSSELL DETTMAR

Of Mr. William Russell Dettmar Of William Russell Dettmar

In an impressive candlelight ceremony in the Frances Chapel of Knowles Memorial Chapel on June 30, Miss Margaret Williams, daughter of Mrs. Freida Siewert, Charles S. Williams of Gastonia, N. C., became the bride of William Russell Dettmar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laney C. Dettmar of Kings Mountain, N. C. The double ring ceremony was used, with Dr. Louis Schultz officiating.

Baskets of white gladioli and zinnias against a background of palms and fern decorated the chancel and lighted tapers in seven-branch candelabra were used on the altar.

The program of nuptial music included two numbers composed and played by Dr. Herman Siewert, uncle of the bride, organist, and Miss Mabel Rich, soloist.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Everett C. Somers, the bride was lovely in a gown of French marquisette over nylon taffeta fashion with high, round neckline featuring a bertha effect, and trimmed with imported Chantilly lace medallions. The long sleeves, ending in points over the hands, were fastened with self-covered buttons. The full skirt ended in a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion, scattered with orange blossoms, fell from a wreath of the blossoms. She carried a white prayer book with sweetheart roses showered with ribbon.

Mrs. Austin A. Lackey, Jr., of Fallston, N. C., was matron of honor. Her gown was of white embroidered organza over green taffeta. The skirt was bouffant and the bodice featured an off-shoulder bertha. She wore a matching bandeau of nylon and carried a peach colored maline miff covered with gerbera daisies. Charles Slocumb Williams, Jr., of Laurens, S. C., served as best man for his brother-in-law, with Duane Bruce Somers, cousin of the bride, and Austin A. Lackey Jr., as ushers. The bride's mother wore a gown of white crepe with corsage of rose gladiolias.

Following the ceremony the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Everett C. Somers, entertained in the reception room of the Rollins Alumni House. The bride's table was centered with a tiered wedding cake surrounded with gardenias and fern and flanked with silver candelabra. Assisting Mrs. Somers were the Mes. William Howison, Herman F. Siewert and E. Ernest Siewert.

The couple left on a wedding trip in the State and on their return will be at home at 451 Virginia Court, Winter Park. For traveling the bride wore a sunback dress of iridescent flamingo pink with matching stole and white accessories. Her corsage was of sweetheart roses from her prayer book.

On her maternal side the bride is descended from the late Herman Henry Siewert, one of the early residents of Winter Park, and on her paternal side, from Jesse M. Williams, of Kings Mountain, N. C., one of the pioneers of the textile industry.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Charles S. Williams, Jr., of Laurens, S. C., Joe McDaniel, Bill Harmon, Dick Foster, Sam Mitchem, of Kings Mountain, N. C., John Head, of Cramerton, N. C., and L. D. Sinclair of Tampa, Fla.

The dining table was covered with a lace cloth, a large birthday cake was in the center surrounded with a delicious and tasty assortment of food.

The honorees were given crystal in their chosen pattern.

The party personnel included Mr. and Mrs. Heavener and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ellison and family, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Ross and family, Mr. and Mrs. Riddle and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mauney.

Mrs. O. O. Jackson Bridge Hostess

Glads, daisies and zinnias were combined to create a festive mood in the home of Mrs. O. O. Jackson Tuesday afternoon when her guests were members of the Entre-Nous bridge club and additional guests.

A dessert course of ginger ale, ice cream and homemade fresh coconut cake was served prior to the games.

Score prizes for the afternoon were awarded Mrs. C. T. Carpenter and Mrs. J. H. Arthur, high and second high respectively. Miss Esther Andrews, of Louisville, house guest of Mrs. W. W. Tolleson, was remembered with a gift.

Those playing other than members were Miss Andrews, Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. M. H. Biser.

Two Honored With Birthday Party

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Yelton recently held a birthday party at their home marking the birthday anniversaries of Charles Douglas Yelton and Isaiah Davis. Delicious ice cream, cake topped with lighted candles was served the guests present, along with corn chips and cakes. The honor guests were the recipients of many useful gifts.
