Study Club Meets With Mrs. Thomasson

Mrs. C. F. Thomasson was hostess on Tuesday night at the Country Club when her guests were members of the Study Club. Mixed garden flowers in pretty color combinations provided decorations for the meeting which was held in the formal dining room. Prior to the program Mrs. Thomasson was assisted in serving a frozen salad course with party accessories, passing a sweet course.

Mrs. B. S. Peeler, program leader had prepared a very interesting and unusual program.

Mrs. H. E. Lynch presented Miss Pat Harris of Jacksonville, Fla., who delighted the members by her rendition of "Trees," she was accompanied on the piano by Miss Pauline Mauney.

Mrs. Lynch also introduced Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gunn of Charlotte. Mr. Gunn showed colored pictures of paint and how it has been made down through the ages, showing the secret of the Masters and the Art and Skill of men with the Brush. A round table discussion of paint problems followed in which Mr. Gunn gave

Miss Helen Hay Bridge Hostess

Miss Helen Hay entertained members of the Tuesday Night bridge club at her home this week. A profusion of early fall flowers were effectively used as room decorations.

During the business meeting held before the games, Mrs. Robert Miller and Mrs. E. A. Smith were elected members.

At the close of an evening of bridge Miss Hay was assisted in serving a very tempting frozen salad course with accessories.

Playing prizes were awarded Mrs. W. L. Ramseur who had compiled the highest score and Mrs. Hugh Ormand who held low score. Miss Nell Hay of Raleigh, guest of the hostess, was presented a lovely gift.

Miss Louise Clark Bride Of William Clyde Lindsay, Jr.

Miss Louise Jennie Clark, daughter of Mrs. George Martin Clark of Montezuma, and William Clyde Lindsay, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Clyde Lindsay, were married Saturday afternoon at the Central Methodist church parsonage, with the pastor, Rev. Joe H. Brendall, officiating, using the double ring ceremony.

The vows were spoken before an improvised altar in front of the mantle in the living room. The background was formed with baskets of white gladioli. An arrangement of white asters and gladioli on the piano completed the decorative layout.

Mrs. C. E. Warlick presented a program of wedding music which included "Moonlight Sonata" by Beethoven, "Traumerel" by Schumann, "Oh Promise Me" by De Koven. The wedding march from "Lohengrin" by Wagner was played for the processional and Mendelssohn's March from "A Mid-Summer Night's Dream" was used for the recessional.

The bride, descended the stairs alone and was met at the living room door by the groom and they entered together.

The bride wore a street length dress of white lace over taffeta with high neckline, a white picture hat and white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with purple orchids showered with tuberoses and white satin ribbon.

Miss Katherine Norcutt of Wadesboro was maid of honor. She wore a street length dress of blue organza with white accessories. Her corsage was brandy-wine roses.
