

First Round Matches In Annual Club Championship Event Listed

The 16 low qualifying golfers in the annual championship tournament at Kings Mountain Country Club were announced this week by Buck Pressley who also reminded the players that first round matches must be completed by Sunday night.

Matches in the low-shooting group to be played by Sunday include:

Defending Champion P. G. Padgett vs. Robert Allen.
Coman Falls vs. Johnny Warlick.
Pat Hovis vs. Kenneth Crook.
Charles Neisler vs. L. A. Hoke.
Amos Dean vs. Erle Powers.
Henry Neisler vs. Reggie Murray.
W. J. Fulkerson vs. Jacob Cooper.
Clyde Lindsay vs. Jay Patterson.

Winners in the above first round matches will form the championship flight, with the losers to fall into the first flight.

Other matches in the first round include:
David Neill vs. Harry Page.
George Houser vs. C. H. Flow-ors.

Bill Craig vs. Don Blanton.
Red Falls vs. Harold Hunicutt.
Jack Arnette vs. Sam Stallings.
Tolly Shuford vs. Johnny McGill.
Luther Joy vs. Rannie Arnette.
Bunny Abbott vs. C. E. Warlick.

Winners in the above matches will form the second flight, with the losers going into the third flight.

Amos Dean carded the lowest qualifying score, a 75. Pat Hovis, the 1949 club champion, carded an 80 for the second low qualifying score.

All matches are to be for 18 holes. Mr. Pressley said, with the exception of final matches in each flight, which are to be for 36 holes.

Winner of the championship flight will gain permanent possession of the President's Cup. Prizes will be awarded winners of the other flights, he said.

Thirteen Cases Tried On Tuesday

Thirteen cases were completed at the regular weekly session of city recorder's court held at City Hall Tuesday afternoon.

Eight defendants were fined after conviction on charges of public drunkenness.

W. H. Medlin, 61, who swore out a warrant for George Short, 31, charging him with being drunk and disorderly and assault with a deadly weapon, was ordered to pay costs of court on a charge of malicious prosecution after he failed to testify on the stand against Short.

Joseph Ervin Davis, drew a fine of $200 and costs after conviction on a charge of driving with his license had been revoked.

Hazel Washington, 22-year-old Negro maid, was fined $100 with leave on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

Cletus Odell Tate was found guilty on a charge of driving without an operator's license and was taxed with the costs of court.

William Clark Henry, 32, of Greenville, S. C., was taxed with costs of court after conviction on charges of public drunkenness and illegal possession of whiskey.

Recorder Judge W. Faison Barness presided over the session.

CARD OF THANKS
We sincerely appreciate the kindness and sympathy of our friends and neighbors extended to us during the illness and death of our daughter,

Barnett, Coggins Attended Schools

Richard Barnett, employee of Cooper's, Inc., Kings Mountain furniture firm, attended a sales training school at High Point this week.

The school is sponsored by the Southern Retail Furniture association and is scheduled to end Friday.

Harold Coggins, manager of the firm, attended a management institute recently at Chapel Hill.

GIRL SCOUTS

The Girl Scouts of Troop 36 of Wesleyan Methodist church went on a weiner roast to Muddy Fork Tuesday afternoon, August 29.

We went swimming and enjoyed our weiner roast and then went home.

Three Local Girls In Nursing Course

Three Kings Mountain girls, Dorothea Ann Hope, Virginia Jean Huffstetter, and Doris Inez Sanders, are among 13 new students beginning study in the Shelby Hospital School of Nursing. Their studies will cover a three-year period.

The students' training will include ethics and nursing arts, taught by Mrs. Nedd Gantt and Mrs. Julia Lloyd; anatomy by Dr. Sam Schenck; materia medica by Dr. H. C. Thompson; microbiology by Dr. S. S. King. Beginning September 18 they will receive instruction in chemistry, psychology, and sociology at Gardner-Webb college. In their junior and senior years they will go to Highlands for psychiatry and to Duke University for pediatrics, studying three months at each school.

Broody hens should be culled from market egg flocks as soon as the broodiness shows up, say poultry specialists at N. C. State College.
