MRS. DORUS LEE BENNETT

Miss Maxine Hord, Mr. Bennett United In Church Rites Ceremony

One of the loveliest weddings of the season was solemnized at the First Baptist church on Sunday, September 3, 1950, at 5:30 in the afternoon when Miss Edna Maxine Hord became the bride of Dorus Lee Bennett. The vows were heard by Reverend T. L. Cashwell, Jr., pastor of the church, who used the impressive double ring ritual.

An unusually beautiful setting for the wedding was achieved with a profusion of palm tree palms making a background for white gladioli in tall floor baskets and cathedral tapers in branched candelabra. Quaint pickets were used to outline the choir lofts at either side of the altar. Family pews were marked with clusters of gladioli flowers and satin ribbon.

Miss Lula Mae Teague was at the organ to provide the nuptial music and to accompany Miss Barbara Matthews, vocalist. Prior to the ceremony Miss Teague played "Liebestraum" by Liszt, "In a Monastery Garden" by Kettleby, "Ave Maria" by Schubert, Nevin's "Venezian Love Song" and "To An Evening Star" by Wagner. As the vows were exchanged she played "Clair de Lune" by Debussy. Traditional marches by Wagner and Mendelssohn were used as professional and recessional. Miss Matthews sang "I Love You Truly" by Bond, "Through The Years" by Youmans, and as a benediction, Malotte's arrangement of "The Lord's Prayer."

The Bride
Miss Hord was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. Her gown of Skinner satin was fashioned with a fitted bodice which featured sweetheart sleeves, dainty Peter Pan collar and tiny self covered buttons from throat to waist. The full skirt extended into a graceful cathedral train. Her full length veil of filmy illusion had a short over tier and was held in place by twin circlets of pearlized orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book on which was posed a white orchid.

Miss Charlotte Jenkins served as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. William Miles Hord, sister-in-law of the bride, Misses Dorothy Francis Goforth and Evelyn Roberts, cousins of the bride and Miss Betty Hayes. The maid of honor was gown in a crisp green taffeta under a bouffant net skirt. She wore a pert monk's cap and mits to match and carried a colonial nosegay of yellow carnations. The gowns of the bridesmaids were of yellow taffeta and their bouquets were of green carnations. Their caps and mits, patterned from those of the maid of honor, matched their ensembles.

The bride's mother was smartly attired in beige crepe with brown accessories and wore a corsage of Talisman roses. The mother of the bridegroom was chic in aqua crepe with which she wore black accessories. Her corsage was also Talisman roses.

Mrs. Robert Allen and Mrs. James White presided at the registers.

Mr. Bennett had for his best man, his brother, James Bennett and usher-groomsmen were Jack Ware, Everett Carlton, Lester Evers and Jake Hord, Jr. Ronald Hord, brother of the bride, served as page boy.

After the ceremony, the bride and groom greeted their guests in the vestibule of the church. Sunday's bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob G. Hord. She was graduated from Central High School and is now employed by the Kings Mountain Drug Company.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Bennett. He was graduated from Central High School and Lenoir-Rhyne College. He holds a position with Bennett Brick and Tile Company.

For traveling Mrs. Bennett wore a modish suit of aqua wool crepe with brown accessories and the orchid from her prayer book. After the wedding trip the young couple will reside in their new home on West Gold street. Out of town guests for the wedding were Mrs. W. L. Davis, Sue, Billy and Peggy Jean of Concord; Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Beam, Cherryville; Miss Estelle Barber, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Teague, Mrs. C. S. Hord, Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. Karl Sawyer, Boone; Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Jones and family, Sharon, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. John C. Pike, Greensboro, N. C.; Mrs. J. B. Ware, Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wallace, Martha and Bankie of Goldsboro; Mrs. Chas. Wright, Earl; Miss Stella Davis, Gastonia.

Home Arts Club Hears Nick Moss

Mrs. Fred Plonk was hostess for the September meeting of the Home Arts Club on Tuesday afternoon.

Several very striking arrangements of fall flowers were used with late summer flowers forming a lovely setting for the party.

Mrs. George Moss, program chairman for the month, introduced Nick Moss, professor of English at Wagner college, Staten Island, N. Y., guest speaker for the meeting, who gave an entertaining talk on some of the achievements that have been made in speech correction. He noted that the four standards for judging the arts are individuality, suggestiveness, universality, and aesthetics and illustrated each with poems.

Miss Clara Plonk of New York City and Mrs. Fred Baker of Atlanta, Ga., were invited guests attending the meeting. The hostess served a salad and sweet course.

Ware Home Scene Of Buffet Dinner

Mrs. Walter Ware, Mrs. Menzell Phifer and Mrs. W. F. Stone, Jr., entertained with a buffet dinner at the home of their mother, Mrs. F. C. Ware on Wednesday night as a courtesy to Miss Stella Mae Davis and James Buford Ware whose wedding will be an event of Saturday night.

Large arrangements of yellow blossoms accented the furnishings in the living room and den. A green and white color note was emphasized in the dining room where the dinner was served buffet style from a beautifully appointed table. Guests found their places at the eight small tables placed in the living room and den. Place cards were hand made miniature brides. In the center of each table was a white candle in a silver holder.

A number of contests furnished
