RECENT BRIDE — Mrs. James Buford Ware, prior to her marriage to Mr. Ware on September 9, was Miss Stella Mae Davis, daughter of Ben Davis and the late Mrs. Davis, of Gastonia. Mr. Ware is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Ware, of Kings Mountain.

Study Club Meets With Mrs. W. T. Weir

The September meeting of the Study Club was held Tuesday night with Mrs. W. T. Weir. Bowls of flowers with the fall shades of red and gold predominating were used to decorate the home.

Prior to the program Mrs. Weir was assisted in serving a complete congealed salad course with punch. A sweet course was passed.

Mrs. P. D. Herndon, program leader for the month, presented Mrs. J. S. Evans who spoke on "World Conditions," stressing how Communism is creeping in and our responsibilities in present day affairs.

Mrs. McGill presided over the business. Mrs. W. T. Weir, book chairman, heard reports from the members who are to place books in the club this year.

Mrs. B. N. Barnes, Mrs. Carl Davidson and Mrs. Aubrey Mauney were appointed on the nominating committee.

Mrs. J. S. Evans and sister, Mrs. Miller of Clarkton, were invited guests.

Drop-In Party Given At Griffin Home

One of the largest and loveliest parties of the week was given Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. W. Griffin, when she and her daughter, Mrs. R. S. Bargar of Jamestown, N. Y., entertained with a Drop-In party.

In the living room bowls of miniature pom pom, zinnias, veronica, lycoris and potted plants added color and beauty. On the dining room table was a large bowl of scarlet zinnias combined with blue sage. The buffet had an arrangement of lycoris, blue sage and veronica. Potted plants placed at vantage points in the room completed the decorations.

Callers were greeted by Mrs. Griffin and introduced to Mrs. Bargar and her young daughter, little Nancy Gay, by Mrs. J. H. Arthur. Nancy Gay, though only five months old, sat in her baby butler, cooed, smiled and captured the interest of the callers. Mrs. W. L. Ramseur received at the dining room door. Mrs. Norman Morrow of Gastonia and Mrs. C.

T. Carpenter, Jr. directed guests to the garden. Mrs. O. P. Lewis greeted callers and directed to the refreshment tables.

The marble topped refreshment table placed in the shade of flowering shrubs was colorful and attractive with an arrangement of ivy, blue and white grapes interspersed with sprigs of blooming olive. On one side the halves of watermelon with iced melon balls, java-wings, stuffed potato chips, dainty cheese apples, assorted nuts, mints, shrimp, party weinefs, ripe olives, assorted pickles and the assortment of cookies were appealing to the eye, tempting to the appetite and delicious to eat. On a smaller marble topped table coca-colas were served from a block of ice surrounded with ivy, red, yellow and green apples. Small tables, chairs and settees were placed about the garden which formed a beautiful setting with the blooming marigolds, cosmos, zinnias, spider lilies and leafy clevelandern. Those assisting in serving were Mesdames L. E. Abbott, G. W. King, J. C. McKinney, Miss Frances Summers, Mrs. Frank McDonald and Miss Betty McDonald of Gastonia.

Goodbyes were said to Mrs. C. T. Carpenter and Mrs. R. G. Plonk. Around 250 guests called between the hour of 4 and 6 o'clock.

Mrs. Will Weaver Hostess To Circle

The Frances Hord circle of the First Baptist church gathered at the home of Mrs. Will Weaver for their monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon.

There were ten members and two visitors present. Mrs. C. D. Ware, circle leader, opened the meeting with prayer. Miss Marjorie Hord conducted the devotionals and also had charge of a very interesting program.

The hostess assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Willie McGill, served a nice sweet course.

Mrs. J. G. Darracott Hostess At Rook

Mrs. J. G. Darracott entertained Tuesday night with Rook, her guests being members of the La Fete Rook club and three additional guests, Mrs. Fred Finger, Mrs. Charlie Goforth and Mrs. Bun Goforth. Festive bowls of dahlias brightened the rooms where rook was played.

A dessert course of lemon Chiffon pie and punch was served from tables centered with miniature vases of button chrysanthemums. Later after several progressions the hostess awarded prizes to Mrs. H. L. Parton, highest score.

er, Mrs. Ben Beam whose score was second-high. The party was honoring one of the members Mrs. Fred Wright on her birthday anniversary.

Two Honored With Birthday Party

Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Payseur entertained recently at a birthday party honoring Miss Betty Jenpy Prince, and Miss Kathy Alston.

the Kathy Alston, who also held the birthday cakes while the honorees blew out the candles. Refreshments consisted of birthday cake and cookies. A period of recreation was enjoyed by all. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Prince, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Prince, Mrs. Tommy Alston, Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Payseur, Misses Betty, Patricia, and Jenpy Prince, and Miss Kathy Alston.
