Mrs. O'Farrell Fetes Thursday Book Club

Mrs. O. C. O'Farrell delightfully entertained members of the Thursday Afternoon Book Club and additional guests at the Woman's Club Thursday.

In the lounge a lovely background was achieved for the party with arrangements of seasonal fall blossoms. Nasturtiums on the mantle flanked on either side with orange candles in antique holders. Marigolds in deep rich shades were used on the piano with candles. Roses and dahlias were used on occasional tables.

Mrs. M. L. Harmon, program leader for the afternoon, presented Mrs. G. V. Patterson, of Gastonia, a charter member of the club who gave a most interesting and informative talk on "Hebron." Hebron is a home out from Blowing Rock operated by Dr. and Mrs. Dillard for alcoholics.

Hon. Mrs. Patterson stated is a Garden of the land, a nursery for lives to grow in and through love and living in fellowship with Christ. Dr. and Mrs. Dillard are helping men to believe in themselves and take a new hold on life. Each year, men who have been there are taking their place in the business world and re-establishing their homes. The group sang "America."

During the business the following slate of officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. J. E. Anthony; Vice-president, Mrs. M. L. Harmon; secretary, Mrs. Arthur Hay; treasurer, Mrs. W. M. Moorhead.

The hostess was assisted in serving a salad and sweet course. Invited guests of the hostess included Mrs. G. V. Patterson and Elmer Spencer of Gastonia, Mrs. Lona McGill, Mrs. J. S. Evans,

Methodist To Visit Children's Home

Next Sunday afternoon at two o'clock members of Central Methodist church will leave the church to go to the Children's Home in Winston-Salem, taking picnic baskets to provide themselves with supper. A worship program planned by the Pastor and Mrs. Ann Mayes, Worship Chairman of the Senior MYF, will be put on at the home at five o'clock, with the assistance of the choir from this church.

This pilgrimage is sponsored by the Community Service Commission of the Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship. Chairman of this commission are Phillip Dye and Don Patterson, and Adult Advisor is Mrs. Bun Goforth. All those who can take passengers in their cars are asked to notify Mrs. Bun Goforth or Mrs. Baxter Pajseur, teacher. Everyone is urged to go.

The Youth Fellowship or the Orphanage plans to meet with the visitors from Kings Mountain.

Mrs. Jimmie Simpson was hostess to members of the Stender Circle of the Lutheran church at her home Glennbrook Monday night.

Mrs. Paul Whitley president, presided over the short business meeting.

Mrs. Simpson gave the Bible lesson, also the program on Home and Foreign Missions.

Light refreshments were served following the program.

Mrs. H. R. Parton, Mrs. J. L. McGill, Mrs. R. H. Webb and Mrs. P. D. Herndon.

Miss Betty Moore Honored At Shower

Miss Bane Bonham and Miss Betty Bonham entertained on Tuesday night at a pre-nuptial courtesy to Miss Betty Ruth Moore, bride-elect of October. The room was lovely with arrangements of dahlias, marigolds and other fall flowers.

Upon arrival the honoree was presented a corsage of pink roses by the hostesses. The following out of town guests were introduced to the group, Mrs. Henry Huss, mother of the groom, of Lincoln, Mrs. Ted Leonhart of Cherryville, sister of the groom.

The hostess assisted by Miss Martha Sue Carroll served a refreshment course. Each guest received a napkin embossed with the words "Betty and Bob."

A large box in yellow and green overflowing with beautiful and useful gifts was presented Miss Moore, who opened the gifts and passed them around for all the guests to see.

Floyd Queen Honored

Floyd Queen celebrated his 27th birthday anniversary Wednesday, October 4, the occasion being marked by a gathering of relatives and friends at his home on the Shelby highway.

Dinner was served buffet style from a lovely decorated table centered with a large birthday cake.

Those enjoying the occasion with Mr. Queen were his mother, Mrs. Marie Queen, Mrs. Boyd Harrelson and son, Dickie, Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Jenkins and son, J. W. of Cherryville. The honoree received many nice and useful gifts.

Circle 2 Met With Mrs. P. D. Herndon

With six members present circle 2 of the Presbyterian church met Monday night with Mrs. P. D. Herndon.

Mrs. Hunter Neisler, chairman, presided. During the business reports were given by the secretary and treasurer. Mrs. Neisler urged the members to attend the Home Mission season at the church, to read the book of Hebrews before Miss Robinson teaches it, to read the study book, Hearthstone. Also reminded the members this is Church paper week.

Mrs. Joe Evans gave the Bible lesson on Daniel's Prayer, stressing three points, what Daniel reveals about his habits of prayer in his youth; the kind of God Daniel believed in, and prayed to; and the great sin Daniel confessed for himself and his people. At the close of her talk the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison.

Mrs. W. J. Fulkerson gave a most interesting and helpful program on Poetry. Having poems read illustrating how we can see the beauty of God through poetry and how the rhythm of poetry appeals to children and how pastors bring out emphasis with poems. Cookies and hot tea were served during the social period.

Three Are Hostesses At Rook Party

Mrs. J. K. Willis, Mrs. C. A. Butterworth and Mrs. Y. F. Throneburg delightfully entertained at six tables of rook at their home on West Mountain street Friday night.

The lower floor of the home was thrown ensuite and decorated with large dahlias and pom-pom dahlias in pastel shades. Prior to the rook sessions the hostesses served ice cream, homemade coconut cake with coffee.

Napkins and tallies were suggestive of Hallowe'en. Hallowe'en candies were served during the four progressions of rook. When scores were tallied Mrs.

P. D. Herndon was found to be the winner of the high score prize, also the floating prize. Mrs. J. M. Rhea was runner up for second high.
