Erskine Alumnae Meet In Gaffney

The October meeting of the Kings Mountain chapter of the Erskine Alumnae association was held at the home of Mrs. W. M. Craft in Gaffney, S. C.

Lovely arrangements of fall flowers added to the attractiveness of the home.

Mrs. John Gamble, the president, had arranged a very interesting program on Erskine College. She was assisted by Mrs. W. E. Blakely, Mrs. John McGill and Mrs. E. W. Neal.

After the business session, a delightful social hour was enjoyed. The hostesses served delicious chicken salad sandwiches with accessories and an iced drink.

George Womack Weds Miss Albea

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — Miss Patricia Ann Albea, daughter of Mrs. Ann Albea of this city, and F. A. Albea of Orangeburg, S. C., became the bride of George Ivy Womack, Jr., at 8 o'clock, September 23, in the Mayfair Baptist church. Dr. Edgar R. Cooper, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Tall tapers lighted the scene and white gladioli, asters and palms formed the decorations. H. L. Levy, organist, played the nuptial music and Mrs. Stanley Gillispie was vocal soloist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of white silk lace fashioned with a shirred round neckline, fitted bodice and full ankle-length skirt. Her veil was of the sheerest white illusion fastened to a lace halo. She carried a bouquet of tube roses, and carnations centered with a white orchid.

Miss Betty Jean Robinson was her maid of honor and wore a frock of coffee lace with matching lace accessories. Her hat was of matching lace made in a helmet style and she carried a bouquet centered with a yellow orchid.

Serving as best man were John Marshall and ushers were Neely Stover, John Allen and Jim Norman.

Mrs. Albea, mother of the bride wore a gown of pink lace and matching accessories with an orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother was gowned in plum crepe with an orchid corsage.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. L. T. Norman wore navy crepe with pink carnations for her corsage.

A reception was held after the wedding in the Spanish Room of the George Washington Hotel. The bride's table was overlaid with a white linen cloth and centered with tiered wedding cake, flanked by white tapers in twin candleholders. Guesting guests at the door was Miss LaNese Norman. The Misses Liela Jones, Mary Penuei and Millie Harmon served punch. Miss Aileen Bell kept the bride's book.

The bride is a graduate of Landon High School and attended the University of Georgia. She has been employed by the Telephone Company for some time. The bridegroom was graduated from Kings Mountain, N. C., high school and attended North Carolina State College before the war and graduated at Georgia Tech, Atlanta. He was a member of Chi Phi Social Fraternity. During World War II he served as First Lieutenant in the Army Air Corps and is now affiliated with Benton Brothers Film Express of this city. He has been recalled to active duty with the 159th Squadron of the National Guard to report October 10, and will be stationed in California.

Immediately following the reception the couple left for North Carolina. The bride chose for her going-away costume, a black faille suit with winter white accessories and wore a white orchid corsage. Upon their return to this city, the couple will leave for California.

Mrs. Thomasson Fetes Twin Table

The home of Mrs. C. F. Thomasson was decorated with assorted fall flowers Tuesday night when she entertained members of the Twin-Table club and additional guests.

Tallies in the seasonal design were drawn and partners found for several progressions of bridge. Mrs. O. W. Myers compiled the highest score and the consolation award was received by Mrs. L. P. Stowe.

Between progressions a salad course consisting of tomatoes stuffed with chicken salad, cheese biscuits, potato chips, pickles, cucumber snacks and macaroni was served with coffee. One of the club members, Mrs. Claud Hambright, who has been a patient in the Memorial Hospital for several weeks was called over long distance and each member talked with her.

Mrs. P. E. Hendricks and Mrs. L. P. Stowe were the only guests present other than club members.

Linda Gail Walker's Birthday Noted

Mrs. A. K. Walker entertained with a party at her home, 701 Landing street, Saturday afternoon honoring her daughter, Linda Gale, who was celebrating her sixth birthday anniversary. Games were played and later guests were served ice cream, cake and candies.

The party personnel included Gail, Gloria and Tony Hampton, Ruth and May Ann McCurdy, Pamela and Gail Morrison, Jerry Clonz, and the following out-of-town guests: Mrs. C. L. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Walker, Charlie and Norma Jean Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Bendall Spittle and sons Franklin, Loy and Wayne, of Charlotte.

The meeting has been arranged by Mrs. Joe Neisler. The public is cordially invited to attend the meeting.

Contract Club Met With Mrs. Heavner

The Contract Club met Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock with Mrs. H. M. Heavner at her home on West Mountain street. The home was beautifully decorated with roses and dahlias. Tallies and napkins suggestive of fall also added a color note.

After several progressions Mrs. Heavner served pie and coffee to the club members and invited guests, Mrs. Jacob Mauney and Mrs. W. S. Fulton, Jr.

Mrs. Georg W. Mauney excelled and received high score prize. Mrs. Jay Patterson received second high prize.

Two Are Hostesses For Circle Meeting

Circle No. 2 of Central Methodist church met Monday night, Oct. 9, with Mrs. E. B. Olive, with Mrs. Billy Putnam as joint hostesses.

Sixteen members and three visitors, Rev. and Mrs. Brendall and Mrs. Nolan of Franklin, N. C., mother of Mrs. Brendall, attended the meeting.

After the group arrived Mr. Brendall showed picture of places they visited during their vacation last summer.

Mrs. C. J. Gault, Jr., presided over the business, and Miss Martha Walker gave the devotional. The secretary read the minutes of the September meeting, and members were urged to contact inactive members.

Plans were made for the supper to be prepared for the Kiwanis Club at Camp Rotary, Thursday night, October 12, by the Woman's Society of Christian Service. Also the fellowship meeting to be held at Bethlehem church in Cherryville Friday night, Oct. 13, celebrating the tenth anniversary of the Womens Society of Christian Service.

It was announced that a missionary study course would be given at Central Methodist church on Oct. 30.

During the social hour a delicious salad course and sandwiches were served.

The meeting adjourned with prayer.

Mrs. J. W. Crawford Fetes Bridge Club

Mrs. Wilson Crawford entertained the Double Deck bridge club at her home Tuesday night. Bowls of mixed blooms predominated by dahlias and zinnias were accented in colorful displays and the guests found their places at several small tables set up for bridge. Each table was centered with a miniature vase containing dainty mixed flowers.

Covers were laid when guests arrived and Mrs. Crawford was assisted in serving a dessert course of lemon pie and coffee.

Bridge was played throughout the remainder of the evening. When scores were tallied after four progressions the hostesses presented prizes to Mrs. W. M. Moorhead and Mrs. J. N. Gamble for high and second high respectively.

Mrs. J. H. Arthur was invited to play with the club members.

Methodist Youth Council To Meet

Miss Betty Cash will be hostess to the Youth Council of Central Methodist church on Tuesday, October 17, at 8 o'clock at her home on the York Road. All officers, commission chairmen and co-chairman, adult advisors and other workers in the Senior MYF are urged to attend. Plans will get underway for a Halloween party to be held on October 28, and projects for the coming month will be outlined.

The following new members were received in the Senior MYF, Central Methodist church, by promotion recently: Bill Briggs, Jay Patterson, Jr., Bud Falls, Billy Bumgardner, Joyce Biser, Shirley Falls, Gail Allen, and Bud Rhea.
