MRS. WILLIAM F. MEDLIN

Miss Pursur Exchanges Vows With Rev. Medlin In Church Rites

In a formal ceremony at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church in Raleigh, Sunday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock, Mary Katherine Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Pursur, became the bride of Rev. William F. Medlin, son of Mrs. Rosa Medlin of Kings Mountain. The Rev. Herbert W. Stroup, Jr., pastor, officiated, using the double ring ceremony, before a background of woodwardia ferns and palms, grouping of seven-branched candelabra with burning tapers. Two gold vases of white chrysanthemums, white snapdragons were on the altar; on either side of the chancel was a large floor vase of white snapdragons, pom pom chrysanthemums and white gladioli. The aisle was carpeted with white cloth. The reserved sections for the families were marked with bows and streamers of white satin ribbon. Prior to the service a program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. E. E. Randolph, organist. Mrs. W. K. Beichler was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ice blue bridal satin by Dutchess, accented with a yoke of marquisette. It was highlighted by chantilly lace set with rhinestones over the shoulders and full down the back to the waist. The full gathered skirt with a train fell from a fitted bodice which featured long sleeves coming to a flattering point at the wrists and fastened by tiny buttons.

The bride's veil was fingertip, double illusion tipped with rhinestones and pearls on the crown. The bride carried a cascade of Fleur D'Amour, phalaenopsis orchids and white petaled orchids, tied with butterfly bows and antique satin ribbons.

Miss Mary Rosella Medlin, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Her gown was pink taffeta, with matching gaunlets, and a dainty fitted bodice coming to a point in the back with a tiny bustle. She carried a cascade bouquet of briercliff roses, orchid pompons and burgundy colored snapdragons; tied with butterfly bows and streamers of rainbow satin ribbons. In her hair was a coronet of flowers matching the gown.

The bride's maids were Miss Ellen Lucille Medlin, sister of the groom and Joann Coats of Garnett. Their gowns were identical dresses of coral and bud green, respectively, with fitted satin bodices, cap sleeves, and Queen Anne collars. The full taffeta skirts were smartly appliqued with narrow strips bengaline-type binding. They carried cascade bouquets of golden rapture and talisman roses and pastel shades of snapdragons and orchid pom poms, tied with pastel colored satin ribbons. In their hair they wore coronets of flowers matching the gowns.

Kay M. Wall, niece of the bride was the little flower girl. She wore a gown of orchid taffeta covered with net and trimmed with marquisette yoke. It was tied with a saucy bow trim in the back. The full skirt was accented by old fashioned pick-ups. She carried a miniature bouquet of sweetheart roses and dainty pastel colored flowers tied with pastel satin shower ribbons. In her hair was a cluster of flowers to match the gown.

The Rev. Jacob Hosea Young of Bland, Va., served as best man. The ushers were John Graham Pursur, brother of the bride, and M. C. Fisher of Charlotte.

Mrs. Pursur, mother of the bride, wore a dress of parma violet. The lace bodice had a sweetheart neckline, with a jeweled clip, and over it a long sleeve short bolero. At her shoulder was a lavender hybrid orchid corsage. Mrs. Medlin, mother of the groom, wore a two-piece dress coat suit of jay green gabardine, with covered buttons extending down the front. Her corsage was a lavender hybrid orchid.

A reception for all the guests was given immediately after the ceremony at the home of the bride. A color scheme of green and white was carried out in floral decorations throughout the house. Mrs. W. M. Wall, sister of the bride, greeted the guests at the door. Mrs. John G. Pursur, sister-in-law of the bride, presided over the punch bowl. The bridal couple cut the first slice of the three-tiered wedding cake, which was then served to the guests by Mrs. Jim Collier and Miss Marie O'Neal, both of Raleigh.

For traveling the bride wore a grey two-piece dress coat suit, with coral trimming, and black accessories. Pinned to her coat was the orchid corsage from her bouquet.

Mrs. Medlin was graduated from Hugh Morson High school. She also received a business course there. For the past year and a half, she has been employed as secretary to the Equity Life Insurance company in Columbia, South Carolina.

Rev. Medlin was graduated from Kings Mountain high school, Lenoir Rhyne College in Hickory, and the Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary in Columbia, South Carolina.

Immediately following the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Miami, Fla., and Havana, Cuba. They will be at home after November 12 at Blountville, Tenn., where Rev. Medlin is now serving as pastor. The out of town guests were from Tennessee, South Carolina, Vermont, Florida, and Kings Mountain.

Wedding Breakfast Honors Miss Warlick

Mrs. W. O. Ruddock and little Diane Falls entertained Miss Avis Warlick and her wedding party at a wedding breakfast Saturday morning at twelve o'clock.

The Ruddock home was artistically decorated with marigolds, bronze and white chrysanthemums. Miss Warlick was presented a corsage upon her arrival.

The menu for the breakfast was ham with pineapple rings, grits, garlic eggs, hot biscuits, preserves, apple juice, coffee and cherry pie.

Miss Warlick took this occasion to present her attendants with lovely chokers of miniature pearls.

The hostess gift to the honoree was a set of sterling silver.

Leaders Workshop At Davidson School

The Girl Scout Workshop will be held at Davidson School, November 7, at 7:30 p.m. All leaders are urged to attend. These Workshops will be held the first Tuesday in every month in order to help Troop Leaders plan their month's activities.

Mrs. J. M. Cooper Bridge Club Hostess

Members of the Ace Of Clubs and additional guests met at the home of Mrs. J. M. Cooper Thursday afternoon.

The party rooms were attractively arranged with a variety of dahlias and roses.

When cards were laid aside

Mrs. Cooper's prizes went to Mrs. H. S. Blackmer who scored highest and Mrs. Arnold Kiser who was runner-up for second high. A salad course was served and a sweet course passed.

Invited guests included Mrs. Arnold Kiser, Mrs. H. S. Blackmer, Mrs. George Houser and Mrs. Hugh Ormand.
