MRS. DANIEL KENNETH GILL

Miss Avis Maie Warlick Is Married To Kenneth Gill

Miss Avis Maie Warlick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abron Platt to Warlick became the bride of Daniel Kenneth Gill, son of Mrs. Rose Gill and the late D. J. Gill of Brooklyn, N. Y., in a candle-light ceremony at the Central Methodist church last Saturday night at 8 o'clock.

Officiating minister was Rev. J. H. Brendall, Jr. The vows were spoken before a background of palms, ferns, ivy, candelabra holding lighted cathedral tapers and floor baskets of white gladioli.

Preceding the ceremony a program of appropriate music was rendered by Miss Mary Helen Lattimore of Shelby, organist, and Miss Frances Summers and B. S. Peeler, Jr., vocalists.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and Joe Fitzpatrick of Brooklyn, N. Y., was best man. The bride's costume was an original gown of candle-light heirloom lace over slipper satin with folds of tulle filling in the off-the-shoulder neckline; long sleeves ending in calia lily points, and a tight bodice with flared skirt ending in a long train. A fingertip veil of candle-light illusion was fastened to a bonnet-shaped headdress trimmed with five rows of pearls. Her bouquet was a white muff of chrysanthemums centered with a yellow throated orchid.

Her only ornament was a string of pearls, gift of the bridegroom. Miss Cynthia Ann Grice, niece of the bride of Shelby, was maid of honor, while the matron of honor was another niece of the bride, Mrs. W. O. Ruddock of Tampa, Fla., and Kings Mountain. They wore gowns of emerald green velvet made with full skirt and horse-shoe neckline. They carried green muffs centered with bronze chrysanthemums and bronze ribbons. Bridesmaids included Mrs. I. B. Goforth, Jr., Mrs. F. A. McDaniel, Jr., Mrs. Wilmoth Duke Kerns, Miss Pat Balla-J, Miss Evelyn Gillespie, and Miss Ola Ross of Aurora and Greenville, N. C. The bridesmaids wore dresses and carried flowers identical to those of the matron and maid of honor. Diane Falls was flower girl. She wore an emerald green velvet dress and carried a white basket of white rose petals.

After a wedding trip in Tennessee, the couple will make their home at 1371 SW 23rd street, Miami, Fla. The bride graduated from Kings Mountain high school and attended Florida Southern college, Lakeland, Fla. The bridegroom graduated from Florida Southern college with a B. S. degree in economics.

Reception Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with a reception at their home on Mountain street. The home was decorated with white gladioli, chrysanthemums and candles. Mr. and Mrs. Packard Elliott and Miss Flossie Grice of Shelby, Mrs. R. C. Goode of Lincolnton, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Neale of Brooklyn, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Davis Mr. and Mrs. H. Y. Ballard, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Peeler, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Goforth assisted at the reception.
