

Crowds Attended Annual Floral Fair

Miss Ava Ware, C. R. Lankford Top Winners

The annual Floral Fair of the Kings Mountain Women's Club was presented last Friday to large crowds, and featured an unusual number of culinary and floral entries for the long list of prizes offered in the several divisions.

Winners of the sweetstakes prizes were Miss Ava Ware, who took first place, and C. A. Lankford, who took second place.

Judges in the floral department competition were Mrs. Dixon Smith, Mrs. Roscoe Lutz and Mrs. Colin Hull, all of Shelby, while judges in the culinary, fancy-work, canned fruit and table decorations divisions were Mrs. Norman Morrow, Mrs. G. V. Patterson and Mrs. P. R. Falls, all of Gastonia.

Large crowds attended the Floral Fair for both the noon and evening meals and to view the floral arrangements. Women's Club officials reported quick sale of the flowers, fancy-work and other articles offered for purchase.

Door prize winner was Mrs. J. C. McKinney.

Commenting on the Fair, Mrs. E. W. Griffin, general chairman, thanked the community for its support of the annual event and expressed appreciation to members of the several committees for their cooperation in presenting the Fair.

Mrs. Paul Mauney, member of the committee on prizes, listed additional prize donations, not previously acknowledged, from Reynolds Motor Company, H. M. Heavener, Fuller Brush district agent, Home Building & Loan association, Stowe Radio Service and Woodward & Son.

Darlington Race Set Armistice Day

DARLINGTON — The Darlington International Raceway, scene of the first annual "Southern 500" last Labor Day, will get a second initiation from the racing fraternity Armistice Day, November 11, when top ranking motorcycle riders from all sections of the country near into action over the fast banked mile and a quarter asphalt track.

Judging from test runs made over the course by two top ranking stars last week, a new record for motorcycles is anticipated by Director Harold Brasington, Jimmy Chann, veteran Peoria, Ill. star and holder of the national record in the 100-mile race over a mile course, and Chet Dykgraaf, another veteran from Grand Rapids, Mich., averaged better than 90 miles per hour in test runs over the asphalt course last week.

Another veteran speedster, Buck Brigance of Charlotte, N. C., streaked around the mile and a quarter span in 50 seconds, equalling the marks set by Chann and Dykgraaf, who have already notified speedway officials that they will be on hand for the speed classic next month. Chann, winner of three national titles last season in cycling the mile track for 100 laps in 68 minutes, 53.45 seconds, but the Illinois star believes that the Langhorne record will be shattered when the throttle jockeys complete 100 miles of racing in the expert division here Armistice Day.

Three races are slated, headed by the 100-mile classic for experts. A 50-mile race for amateurs and a 50-mile race for novice riders are slated as preliminary events. Time trials will be held Thursday and Friday, November 9 and 10, to qualify the riders for the sensational spins over the fast asphalt track.

Rated among other favorites expected here for the long distance classic in addition to Chann, Brigance and Dykgraaf are such stars as Larry Headrick, San Jose, Calif., the comet of the year and winner of three national championships for 1950; Billy Huger, Reading, Pa., winner of the 100-miler at Langhorne this year; Bill Tuman, Rockford, Ill., holder of the five-mile championship over a half-mile track; Paul Albrecht, Sacramento, Calif., winner of the five mile event last year; and other top stars from the nation.

James Franklin was the printer for the Boston Gazette, second newspaper in America, started in 1720. William Brooker was the editor.
