Miss Eshouse, W. C. Anthony Exchange Marriage Vows

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Nov. 19.—The marriage of Miss Elizabeth M. Eshouse and William C. Anthony was solemnized at 8 Saturday evening in Stetson chapel in the presence of about 100 guests. The Rev. John Vanderploeg, pastor of the Grace Christian Reformed church, performed the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Eshuis, South Park street, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Anthony, Kings Mountain, N. C. are the bridegroom's parents.

For her marriage Miss Eshouse chose a gown of white lace over satin with long sleeves and nylon net yoke. A gathered lace peplum extended to a point in the back over a full satin skirt and train. A white lace cap over satin she carried a bouquet of calla lilies.

Several interesting progressions of bride ensued with Mrs. Fred McDaniel carrying off high score prize. The honorees were remembered with gifts from the hostesses.

Guests were invited into the dining room, the table was overlaid with a beautiful cloth in the center was an artistic arrangement of mixed fall flowers in contrasting shades. Coffee was poured from a silver service from one of the table by Mrs. Hamrick. Mrs. J. A. Neisler served ice cream molded as pumpkins, sandwiches cut as turkeys, individual fruit cakes and cheese biscuits.

The honor guests were given small umbrellas to be used in case of a shower as they started upstairs there they found a shower of gifts from the assembled group.

Two Honored With Anniversary Party

One of the loveliest and most unique parties of last week was the paper shower given Friday afternoon by Mrs. J. A. Neisler and Mrs. L. W. Hamrick of Bolling Springs at the home of Mrs. Neisler, honoring Mrs. Henry Neisler and Mrs. George Lattimore on their first wedding anniversary.

Tables were arranged for bridge at each place was a miniature newspaper, The Reminder, an extra carrying an account of their weddings and a write up of the party and several personals of the honorees.
