Miss Frances Lindsay Becomes Bride Of C. H. Moss, Jr., In Church Rites

The First Baptist church was the setting for a lovely wedding Saturday night when Miss Frances Elizabeth Lindsay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde L. Lindsay, became the bride of Charles Hunter Moss, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs.

Charles Hunter Moss. The service was held at 8 o'clock with the pastor, Rev. T. L. Cashwell, officiating, using the double ring ceremony.

The vows were spoken before a background of palms with seven branched candelabras holding cathedral tapers forming an arch across the baptistry. Floor baskets of white chrysanthemums were placed at either side of the choir railings. The choir and baptistry railings were veiled in white and overlaid with fern.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, C. H. Moss, father of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Charles Eugene Neisler III, John Kezziah, brother-in-law of the groom, William Lupton of Winston-Salem and Frank Glass. The ushers were members of the groom's Fraternity at State College.

The bride wore a gown of ivory slipper satin with fitted bodice, low yoke of nylon edged with Chantilly lace, long sleeves ending in calla lily points over the hands. The full skirt extended into an aisle wide trail. Her finger tip veil of French illusion edged with Chantilly lace was attached to a satin Juliet cap with lace insets and flowers in seed pearl and orange blossoms. She carried a satin muff ornamented with three large white orchids softened with maline with streamers of pearls.

Bridesmaids
Miss Joyce Foster was maid of honor. Mrs. Ed Early, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Their dresses were gold satin, fitted bodices with attached shoulder length capes and full skirts. Their headress was satin plaits. They carried satin muffs with two large bronze orchids.

Bridesmaids were Miss Gloria Harkey of Lincoln, Miss Margaret Kincaid of Bessemer City, Miss Lyvonne Lindsay, sister of the bride, and Mrs. John Kessiah, sister of the groom. Their dresses were of green satin and fashioned as those of the honor attendants. They carried similar muffs of bronze orchids.

Mrs. Lindsay, mother of the bride, wore a fuchsia crepe dress with a purple orchid shoulder corsage. Mrs. Moss, mother of the groom, wore ice blue crepe and a corsage of yellow orchids and split yellow carnations.

Trip To Florida
After the wedding the couple received in the vestibule of the church. Later they left for a wedding trip to Florida. Upon their return they will be at home on East King street. For traveling the bride wore a brown tweed suit with brown accessories and an orchid from her bouquet.

Mrs. C. E. Neisler DAR Hostess

Mrs. C. E. Neisler was hostess on Wednesday afternoon to the Colonel Frederick Hambricht Chapter DAR at her home on Piedmont avenue. Red berries and evergreens were predominant in the Christmas decorations throughout the home.

Mrs. Tolly Shuford presided. The DAR has gone on record as opposed to World Government. Papers were passed with the resolution and signed by the local members.

Each member brought a gift to be sent a veteran. Twelve members responded to roll call.

During the social period following the program the hostess served a frozen salad course with accessories.
