Ace Of Clubs Met With Mrs. Lynch

Mrs. Haywood E. Lynch was a delightful hostess on Thursday afternoon to members of the Ace of Clubs.

Chrysanthemums, winter gardens and greenery were used with charming effect throughout the home. Bridge was played progressively with high score prize going to Mrs. Howard Jackson and second high to Mrs. Amos Dean.

Tables were arranged for refreshments and the hostess served Boston cream pie, coffee and nuts.

A new member, Mrs. Ralph

Large Crowd Attend Club Night

Christmas decorations were in evidence at the Country club Saturday night and a large number of members enjoyed the buffet dinner, and entertainments.

Bridge and canasta were played after dinner with Mrs. Sam Davis winning high score in bridge. Mrs. Jack Arnette receiving the low score award.

In canasta prizes were given Mrs. H. R. Neisler, Mrs. W. L. Ramseur and Amos Dean.

Weaver was welcomed into the circle.

Juranek-Cole Invitations Issued

The following invitations were received in Kings Mountain this week:

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Juraneck request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Marie to Mr. Joe Lee Cole Friday, the twenty-second of December, at eight o'clock Jennings Lodge Chapel Evangelical Assembly Grounds Jennings Lodge, Oregon Reception following Keller's Dining Hall

Y. W. A. Meet In Davis Home

The Attie Bostic Y. W. A. Circles No. 1 and 2 held their regular meeting Monday night December 4 at the home of Miss Betty Davis assisted by Miss Joyce Foster.

Mrs. Dee Jackson opened the program with scripture followed with prayer by Frances Edens. Those taking part on the program were Mrs. Al Dunn, Betty Hayes, Betty Davis and Mrs. Dee Jackson.

President, Joyce Foster, presided over the routine business. The group decided to remain as two circles having one meeting in the home, one in the church. Mrs. Jackson closed the meeting with prayer.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Al Dunn on December 18th; each member is to bring a gift for under privileged children.

Mrs. Blackmer Fetes Tuesday Bridge Club

Christmas decorations were used in the private dining room of the Country Club Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. H. S. Blackmer entertained the Tuesday Bridge Club.

Berries, holly, Christmas greens and candles were used at vantage points in the room with a miniature Christmas tree and Christmas tallies on each table made a lovely setting for the party.

When scores were tallies Mrs. W. L. Ramseur held high for members, Mrs. L. E. Abbot for visitors, each receiving attractive gifts.

The Christmas theme was carried out in the napkins and salad-sweet course served.

Garden Club Planning Pilgrimage

Plans are being completed by the Kings Mountain Garden Club for its annual Christmas Pilgrimage on Thursday, December 22. This marks the second year the Garden Club has arranged for the people in the community to view Christmas decorations in individual homes; and it promises to be an outstanding occasion in the yearly program of the club.

Three homes will be opened for inspection at which time the public is cordially invited and urged to participate in the pilgrimage. The homes will be opened from 3 until 6 in the afternoon and 8 until 10 in the evening. The homes will feature unusual and beautiful Christmas decorations.

Mrs. Hunter Neisler will feature a pastel Christmas tree and a Christmas tea table.

Mrs. George H. Mauney will use the traditional red and green giving special emphasis to a children's room at Christmas. Along with garden club members Mrs. Mauney will be assisted by her mother, Mrs. C. H. Broward, of Charlotte, well known in Kings Mountain for her ability along artistic lines.

Mrs. H. C. Mayes will use an all-white color scheme in her decorations and will also feature her pine-paneled den in holiday dress. Light refreshments will be served.

The admission will be one dollar, the proceeds will be used for club projects of beautification.

Miss Webster Bride Of Halbert B. Olive

The following announcements were received in Kings Mountain this week:

Mrs. William McRae Webster announces the marriage of her daughter Sara Ernestine to Mr. Halbert Briggs Olive on Monday, the ninth of October, Nineteen hundred and fifty New York

Mrs. Lewis Hostess To Home Arts Club

Mrs. O. P. Lewis delightfully entertained members of the Home Arts Club Tuesday afternoon in the large dining room of the Country Club.

Christmas decorations were used, one clever arrangement was a replica of the recent Christmas parade given her, another unique table decoration was a skelton umbrella covered with Christmas card. Traditional berries and greens in unusual arrangements were used about the room.

Mrs. W. R. Craig, leader for the afternoon, had a most interesting program on Christmas music, with the Girls quartet from the high school accompanied by Jeanene Hallman and directed by W. Howard Coble. Duet-Contique de Noel—Adam; Evelyn Cline-Barbara Grantham. Solo-The Birthday of the King—Barbara Grantham. Quarter-The Sleep of the Child Jesus-Gevaret; The Virgin by the Manager-Caesar French Neidlinger. Solo-Voices of the Sky-Evelyn Cline. Quartet-Christmas Morn—Warren, Ensemble-Lister to the Lambs-Dett.

During the business a nominating committee was appointed and hostess months given out. The hostess was assisted in serving a Christmas salad and sweet course.

Christmas Plans For Pauline Club

Mrs. Annie Murphy and Mrs. Virginia Allen were hostesses Tuesday night to the Pauline Community Club entertaining in the club house.

The meeting was opened with singing, "I Need Thee Every Hour". The scripture lesson was given by Mrs. Annie Murphy followed with prayer by Mrs. Earl Ledford.

During the business plans were made for bringing cheer to shut-ins for Christmas. Plans were completed for the annual Christmas party to be held Tuesday, December 19.

Games and contests featured the entertainment during the social hour with Mrs. Earl Ledford receiving the prize.

Fruitcake, coffee and potato chips were passed. Mrs. Jack Hultender closed the meeting with prayer.

Canasta Club Meets With Mrs. D. Bennett

Pink carnations added charm to the living room of Mrs. Dorus Bennett on Tuesday night when she entertained the Red 3 Canasta club.

Canasta was played at two tables. Just before serving, a large coconut cake was brought in and used as the birthday cake for two of the players who were celebrating their birthdays. "Happy Birthday" was sung in unison. Later the cake was cut and served with ice cream and coffee.
