Christmas greens and candles added a cheery note to the party rooms.

When scores were tallied at the close of the games it was revealed Mrs. J. M. Cooper held high score, Mrs. Howard Jackson second high. Cranberry salad with pleasing accessories was served.

Favorite RECIPES

MERRY CHRISTMAS WREATH

(Mrs. P. D. Patrick) 1/2 pound of fresh marshmallows. 1/4 cup of butter or margarine. One package of crisp rice cereal. Melt butter or margarine in top of double boiler, cook stirring until mixture is consistency of heavy syrup.

Pour mixture over cereal in a large greased bowl. Stir until all cereal is well coated. Pack the cereal mixture into greased individual ring molds with your well buttered hands. The tighter packed, the better the wreath. Chill molds for about ten minutes.

Loosen edge of cereal ring with spatula gently forcing ring out of mold. Make dot with cinnamon candy. Let wreath stand over night to harden. Put red bow on top of wreath.

"MORAVIAN CHRISTMAS COOKIES"

(Mrs. Jacob P. Mauney) 1 pint molasses. 1 cup brown sugar (not packed). 1 scant cup butter. 1/2 tablespoon cloves. 2 tablespoons cinnamon. Dash of salt.

1 3/4 pounds flour—or enough to make not too stiff dough. 3/4 tablespoons ginger and 1 tablespoon nutmeg. Grated rind of 1 orange.

1 level tablespoon soda dissolved in 1 1/2 tablespoons sweet milk.

Combine butter and molasses, add sugar, spices, salt, soda, and then add flour gradually, mixing well after each addition. Add grated orange rind. Let stand in a cold place a week or two. Place small amount of dough on slightly floured board and roll paper-thin. Cut with floured cookie cutters in fancy shapes. Bake on a greased baking sheet in moderate oven (350 F) for 6 minutes. These cookies keep indefinitely in closed tins.

Commercial hatcheries in North Carolina produced 4,570,000 chicks during October. This total set a new record for the month. Production in October, 1949, was only 1,584,000 chicks.

Social Club Meets With Mrs. Neisler

The home of Mrs. C. E. Neisler was festive with holly, other Christmas greens and nandina berries Friday afternoon when she entertained the Social Club.

Rook was played progressively with Mrs. M. L. Plonk receiving high score and Mrs. B. S. Neill receiving low score, each were awarded lovely gifts. After four progressions the hostess was assisted in serving a frozen salad course with coffee, passing a sweet course.

Mrs. P. D. Herndon was invited to play with the members.
