Party Honors Little Mascots

Mrs. A. W. Kincaid entertained with a four course turkey dinner as her home Friday night as a special courtesy to the officers of the local Eastern Star Chapter, the Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Mae Willman of Asheville.

chapter, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Stephens, Asheville, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moore, Belmont and A. W. Kincaid also shared the happy occasion. After the meal the group assembled at Masonic Hall, where the chapter had planned a party honoring their little mascots, Edith Jo Bridges and Glee Edwin Bridges, Jr., grandchildren of G. A. Bridges, Worthy Patron of the Kings Mountain Chapter.

First Grade Wins Silver Cup

Central School Parent-Teacher Association held its December meeting Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Humes Houston presiding over a routine business session. A delightful devotional and program was given by the Jack and Jill Kindergarten. Miss Beam's first grade won the silver cup for the month. Mrs. David Fisher secretary read minutes of the November meeting. Open discussion was held on suggestions listed to be investigated by Finance and Budget committee before the January meeting concerning needs of the school that the P. T. A. can purchase. Following announcements were made—January meeting to be the third Wednesday with Mr. Jacob Mauney, Mrs. P. D. Fulton, Mrs. J. W. Webster and Mrs. Lawrence Burton as hostesses. Reminded of the Jaycees Toy drive. The meeting was adjourned at 4:20. Light refreshments were served before the meeting with the following grade-mothers as hostesses: Mrs. Holland Dixon, Mrs. Arnold Kincaid and Mrs. Percy Dilling.

Twin-Table Club Met With Mrs. Griffin

Mrs. E. W. Griffin entertained with bridge Tuesday night when her guests were members of the Twin-Table club and two additional guests Mrs. Phillip Padgett and Mrs. J. H. Arthur. Christmas motif was carried out in the decorations, tallies and refreshments. After three progressions of bridge the hostess was assisted in serving Italian Spumoni, chocolate cake, stuffed dates, miniature anchovy butter sandwiches, pickles and English hot 'cider. Hot pizza pies were passed. Colored slides of the hostess family, their home at Montonia and their lovely garden here were shown.

Mrs. B. S. Neill Fetes House & Garden Club

The December meeting of the House and Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. B. S. Neill. A spirit of festivity prevailed in the living room of the Neill home. Gaily wrapped gifts from modern-metallic to old fashioned tissue were displayed. Mrs. Neill's gift won first place in originality, being a gift for Pop with the ribbon tied as a necktie. Mrs. Henry Neisler's was for beauty. Her gift was wrapped in fuchsia and silver striped paper with a center piece of ornaments arranged as an old fashion bouquet.

For team I Mrs. Paul Neisler won top honors with her arrangement of a wreath in the arbor. The wreath consisted of pine, cedar, spruce, boxwood, with red apples, lemons, nuts, gumdrops arranged to cover it. A huge red English Yule Candle burned brightly in the center. Mrs. George H. Mauney gave a very entertaining lecture on "Make Your Own Merry Christmas." Mrs. Mauney had made several novelties to explain her talk. One of special beauty was a lollypop tree, which would be a child's dream come true. Mrs. Mauney showed the members what could be done with such every-day items as embroidery hoops, tooth picks in a cord and aluminum foil.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Neill served a lovely Christmas plate consisting of fruit cake, coffee, sandwiches made as truffled dates and a chocolate bell.

Garden Club Meets With Mrs. M. A. Ware

The Kings Mountain Garden Club held its Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. M. A. Ware Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. George H. Mauney gave a timely and interesting program on traditions of Christmas as expressed in decorations taken from the book "Make Your Own Merry Christmas" by Ann Wertsler. Mrs. Mauney used a number of illustrations which she had made for the occasion.

The special arrangements made by the three teams of the club were as follows: Team I supplied the mantle arrangement which was made lovely and original with the use of tall brass candle holders with red candles at each end and a panorama of fern and poinsettias with gold ornaments in the center. Suspended at each corner of the mantle were Christmas balls of gold tied with red ribbons, and from the large mirror above the mantle hung an array of gold balls from red ribbons of various lengths. Team II decorated the dining table with a beautiful mass arrangement of red poinsettias, gold balls and gold foam-like tinsel which glittered in the light of eight lighted red candles. Team III caught the spirit of Christmas with a console table arrangement of green holly and galax leaves used together with gilded holly and galax leaves displayed in a round brass bowl. To the side was a brass candelabra holding three red candles.

Plans for the Club's second Christmas Home Pilgrimage to be held on December 21st were discussed at the business meeting. Each team will sponsor and decorate a home and the following three members will be opened for the Pilgrimage: Mrs. H. C. Mayes, Mrs. George H. Mauney, and Mrs. Hunter Neisler.

An especially attractive Christmas salad and dessert plate was served by the hostess, after which she presented each guest a tiny decorated Christmas wreath which turned out to be a cookie.

Mrs. Shuford Fetes Contract Club

Decorations of pine berries and colored Christmas ornaments were used with pleasing effect in the home Mrs. Tolly Shuford Tuesday afternoon when her guests were members of the Contract Club and Mrs. C. F. Thomson. Mrs. C. T. Carpenter, Jr. was winner of high score prize. Mrs.

Betty Evans Notes Fifth Birthday

Mrs. J. S. Evans entertained Saturday afternoon at her home with a party for her daughter, Betty who was celebrating her fifth birthday anniversary. Movies of Donald Duck, Mickie Mouse and Little Black Sambo were shown.

After the play period the children gathered around the table for refreshments and to sing "Happy Birthday" to Betty. Hanging from the chandeliers over the table was a variety of colored balloons which were a herald of Christmas. Individual cakes with tiny candles were placed around the table. The birthday cake was in the center. Fancy candles and ice cream was served with the cake.

Fifteen of Betty's little friends were present for the gala affair. Mrs. Evans was assisted in entertaining and serving by her sister, Mrs. J. W. Miller of Clarkston and Mrs. H. S. Blackmer.
