Entre-Nous Club Met With Mrs. Hayes

The home of Mrs. H. C. Mayes was beautifully decorated in the seasonal colors on Tuesday afternoon when she entertained the members of the Entre-Nous Bridge Club.

After the second progression a tempting salad-dessert course was served.

When tallies were compared at the close of the afternoon games high score prize was awarded Mrs. H. L. Campbell with Mrs. J. H. Arthur receiving second high.

Mrs. L. M. Logan and Miss Helen Logan spent the holidays in Miami with Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Logan Jr., and family.

Club Members Entertain Husbands

With Mrs. Paul Neisler and Mrs. Fred Plonk acting hosts the members of the Duplex bridge club entertained with a dinner at the Country Club last Thursday night.

The affair was planned as a compliment to husbands of the club members.

Christmas decorations prevailed throughout the club house and a delicious steak dinner was served.

When scores were tallied at the conclusion of the games, it was revealed Mrs. J. B. Simpson held high score for the ladies and C. D. Blanton high for the gentlemen.

Scout Troop Troop 33 Feted

Saturday night, December 30, Misses Peggy Wren Craig and Becky Ormand entertained Girl Scout troop 33 with a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Craig.

New Year's decorations were used throughout the home. The hostess made their place cards and paper hats which were given as favors.

Dinner was served from the table in the dining room. Places were found at smaller tables in the living room. Turkey pie, green peas, stuffed pear salad, hot rolls, ice cream, coconut cakes and other dainties were served.

As the girls assembled in the dining room they formed around the large window where a manger scene was placed, joined hands and sang the "Hallelujahs".

Ringo was played after the meal.

The hostesses were assisted in serving and entertaining by the troop leaders, Mrs. Jake Early and Mrs. Hilliard Black.

RASPBERRY ANGEL PIE
(Mrs. J. E. Anthony)

PIECRUST: Preheat oven 450 degrees F. Sift 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour and 1/2 tsp. salt in a bowl. Cut 1/4 cup Swift's lard into flour with pastry blender or 2 knives until particles are size of small peas. Sprinkle cold water, a little at a time, over different parts of flour mixture. Toss together lightly with a fork. Use as little water as possible. Just enough to make dough hold together (2 or 3 tsp. or less). Place dough on waxed paper. Press gently with the paper into a ball. Let stand at room temperature for a few min. Lightly flour board and rolling pin; or cover board with pastry canvas and rolling pin with knitted cover, both lightly floured. Roll dough in circle 1/4 inch thick. Use light strokes, work from center out. Lift rolling pin as it nears edge. Invert 8 inch pie pan on dough; cut 1/4 inch beyond edge of pan; fold in half; lay fold in center of pan; unfold. Fit pastry in pan, pressing with finger-tips from center out to remove air bubbles. Fold pastry under to fit edge of rim. Press down with fork. Indent edge with finger-tips to mark number of servings. Prick with fork. Bake 12 to 15 min.

FILLING: Boil 1/2 cup sugar and 1/2 cup water to soft ball stage (235 degrees F.). Pour syrup, in a fine stream, over 2 stiffly beaten egg whites beating continuously. Soften 2 tsp. gelatin in 2 tsp. cold water. Dissolve over hot water. Combine with egg white mixture. Beat 1 min. Add 1/2 tsp. salt and 1 tsp. lemon juice. Cool, while beating 1/2 pt. whipping cream. Fold both together. Pour into cooled pie shell; chill till set. Serve with whipped cream border and this Raspberry Sauce in center: Press 1 cup fresh raspberries through a sieve and add enough water to make 1 cup. Gradually blend this with 1/2 cup sugar and 1 tsp. cornstarch. Stir constantly over medium heat until thickened and clear. Reduce heat. Cook 10 min., stirring constantly. Cool.

White Cake
(Mrs. Tim Hord)
3/4 cups of cake flour
4 teaspoonfuls of baking powder
1/4 teaspoon full of salt
2 cups of sugar
1/2 cup of shortening-Crisco
1 1/2 cups ice water.
4 egg whites
1 teaspoon vanilla
Sift together dry ingredients twice. Put in large bowl of mixer

Miss Neisler Honors Miss Bettie Barnett

One of the lovely social events of the Yule season was the luncheon given by Miss Pat Neisler Friday as a pre-nuptial courtesy for Miss Bettie Barnett of Gastonia, bride-elect of early spring.

Yuletide decorations were in evidence throughout the home, a blue Christmas tree with gold lights predominated the scene in the living room. Soft candlelight and greenery interspersed with silver trims made an attractive setting for the small tables placed for the luncheon.

Cocktails were served in the living room, guests were then invited into the dining room where a tempting and delicious meal was served buffet style.

After the delightful meal sparkling conversation enlivened the occasion until the sixteen guests reluctantly departed for their homes in Gastonia.

Open House Held At Woman's Club

The Senior Woman's Club and Junior Woman's Club held open house at the club house on Saturday night complimenting the Choral society after their return from caroling.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Luther Cansler and Mrs. Jay Patterson. Mrs. Jacob Mauney invited callers into the lounge where a refreshment table had been placed.

Mrs. H. T. Fulton poured coffee from a silver service at one end of the table. Fancy sandwiches and cookies were passed by Mrs. S. S. Weir, Jr., and Miss Diana Gambie.

Decorations of holly, silvered berries, red candles and other decorations in keeping with the season were used, all blending into a beautiful setting for the party.

About sixty young people enjoyed the party.

Miss Betty Lynch Accorded Courtesy

Mr. and Mrs. David Neff, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Neill entertained with a Christmas party at the home of the latter at Montonia as a special courtesy to Miss Betty Lynch and George Tolleson whose wedding will be an event of February.

In the living room a decorated Christmas tree inspired the Yuletide spirit and numerous arrangements of holly mistletoe and candles were in appropriate displays.

Numbers were drawn as guests arrived and attractive gifts were presented Miss Lynch, George Tolleson, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Ramsey, Tommy Baker, George Thomason and Miss Peggy Arthur for holding the lucky numbers.

The refreshment table was covered with a red satin cloth, the punch bowl was surrounded with greenery, lighted candles added a pleasing touch. Punch, fruit cake, candy and nuts were served.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dettmar of Winter Park, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Neill, Jr. of Gastonia and Miss Mary Virginia Sommers of Charlotte.
