Miss Morrow Weds E. G. Patton

A decorative motif of pink was observed for the wedding of Miss Caroline Kirven Morrow and Edward Glenn Patton, who spoke their vows on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock before the altar of the First Presbyterian church in Gastonia.

The Rev. G. T. Brown read the ritual which included the double ring service.

A program of music was presented by Mrs. Fred Ratchford at the organ and Mrs. R. H. Philhour at the piano. The organ alone was used for the traditional processional and recessional numbers, and during the ceremony Mrs. Ratchford played "Caprice Viennese" by Kreisler.

Given in marriage by her brother, Norman Morrow, the bride wore a graceful street-length model in heather-colored lace with matching bolero. Her hat and accessories were in the heather tone, and she carried a bouquet of Parma violets and pink perfection camellias accented with violet nylon net and showered with narrow pink ribbon.

Mrs. Walter W. Dickson was matron of honor and the bride's only attendant.

John Alexander Ross of Raleigh attended Mr. Patton as best man, and ushers were Nollie G. Patton and Frank C. Patton, Jr., of Morganton.

A reception at the home of the bride's mother on the New Hope Road followed the ceremony.

Mrs. Patton is the only daughter of Mrs. Norman Morrow and the late Mr. Morrow, former residents of Kings Mountain.

Mr. Patton is the son of Mrs. Joseph Reuben Patton of Morganton and the late Mr. Patton.

For a southern trip, Mrs. Patton wore a Lili Ann Spring suit in beige wool, a small hat trimmed with jeweled get-me-nots, and black accessories. She completed her costume with stone martin furs.

Mrs. E. W. Griffin, Walter Griffin, Mrs. W. T. Weir and Mrs. M. A. Ware attended the wedding from Kings Mountain.

Gates County poultrymen are practicing culling to remove "loafers" from their flocks and thereby increase profits.

Troop 33 met Monday for the meeting. The president called the meeting to order. The secretary called the roll. Then we went to the City Hall and saw where the firemen slide down the pole. We saw where they slept. Then we went to an office and heard a message over the two-way radio. Then we went down to the drug store and got some ice cream. Then we went back to the church. Peggy Craig and Peggy Black gave a joke. Then we sang some songs. We had our goodbye circle and went home.
