

"B" Quint Defeats Shelby, Girls Lose

Kings Mountain high school "B" basketball teams won a doublicheader from Cherryville high teams Tuesday night at Central gymnasium, the girls taking the opener 24 to 22 and the boys taking an overtime thriller by 54 to 46. Coach Shu Carlton's "B" sex-et lead at the half by 12 to 11 and held for the win. All three forwards figured in the scoring. Barbara Gault had 9 points, Shirley Falls had 8 and Katy Jones had 7. Mariene Beam had 12 for Cherryville to pace the scoring. The nightcap was a rough and ready thriller, with Kings Mountain collecting 23 personal fouls, 10 more than the visitors. Cherryville made 14 good free tosses but missed 14 and a chance to win going away as Kings Mountain hit on only six charity shots of 15 chances.

Charles Guyton hit a bucket with seconds left to send the game into overtime at 42-all.

In the three-minute extra period, Gene Welch and Ollie Harris each hit for two buckets to ice the contest. Ollie Harris topped the Kings Mountain scoring with 19 points. Saine, a fast, hard-driving guard, had 31 for the losers, tallied on 10 goals and 11 good free shots.

"Piedmont" is the name of a new barley being developed by the North Carolina Experiment Station.

Grade A Milk purchases by North Carolina distributors were nearly one-fourth higher in 1950 than in 1949.

The leafy parts of many vegetables are rich in carotene and protein, essential ingredients of well-balanced livestock feeds.

A large proportion of farmers who own home freezers continue to rent freezer-locker space for additional storage.
