Miss Goforth Honors Miss Betsy Stowe

MISS GOFORTH HONORS Miss Margaret Goforth entertained Monday evening at the home of Mrs. J. R. Davis with a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Betsy Stowe, whose wedding to George Allen of New York City will take place in the early spring.

A green and white note was carried out in the bridal motif. The home was beautifully decorated with arrangements of white gladioli and green and white pom poms. The bride-elect was presented a corsage of white carnations. Miss Stowe was lovely in a dress of black net over green taffeta. Upon arrival of the guests, the hostess served a dessert course consisting of ice cream in calli molds, with bridal cakes and accessories. During the evening bridge and hearts were played. High score in bridge was won by Mrs. L. P. Stowe, mother of the bride-elect. High score in hearts was won by Mrs. Lawrence Patrick. The bride-elect was presented a shower of lovely gifts. The guests included Miss Stowe, Miss Sybil Spratt, Miss Bernice Harrison, Miss Leane Patterson, Miss Helen Logan, Miss Jean Lynch, Mrs. L. P. Stowe, Mrs. George Allen, Sr., Mrs. J. R. Davis, Mrs. Margaret Spivey, Mrs. Jimmy Spivey, Mrs. Lawrence Patrick, Mrs. Robert Neill, Mrs. Walter Harmon, Mrs. Frances Malcolm, Mrs. Henry Neisler, Mrs. Claude Hambricht, Mrs. E. Verette Carlton and Mrs. Charlie Warlick.

Fulton Is El Paso Table Tennis Champ

Sgt. John Fulton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Deck Fulton, of Kings Mountain, is the first table tennis champion of El Paso, Texas. Sgt. Fulton, on duty with the army at Fort Bliss, near El Paso, upset the favorite to capture the first city table championship after a series of matches at the El

Books Sought For Overseas

Kings Mountain's Senior and Junior Woman's Clubs are joining in a nation-wide movement Saturday to collect books for people overseas.

Kings Mountain citizens who have old books not now in use, as well as old magazines, are being urged to bring them to the Woman's Club Saturday morning between 9:30 and noon as the first step in shipping them overseas.

Announcement of the collection was made by Mrs. J. P. Mauney, Senior Woman's Club president.

Books desired are children's books, primary and high school textbooks, modern fiction and non-fiction, literary classics, dictionaries, encyclopedias, and almanacs.

Magazines particularly desired include: Jack and Jill, American Childhood, Child Study, Atlantic Monthly, Saturday Evening Post, National Geographic, American Mercury, Nature magazines, Life, Time, Business Week, U. S. News, Scientific Monthly, Scientific American, Popular Science and Popular Mechanics.

Paso YMCA.

The Kings Mountain man won the title over Mac Horn, former Texas Western champ, in a hot four-set match. Fulton captured the first set easily, 21-13, but was extended in the second, taking it 21-19. Horn then won the third 21-10. The last set was a rigorous one, going several extra points before Fulton won it, 25-23.

Sgt. Fulton has been playing table tennis since he was 12 years old and won the servicemen's championship of Washington, D. C., in 1943.
