Senior MYF To Have Special Program

Special morning worship programs preceding and including Easter will begin Sunday morning in the youth chapel for the Senior MYF, at which time Patricia Prince will present a program, "For He Had Great Possessions," using a drawing of the rich young ruler turning away from Christ, as a worship center. Special music will be rendered by a quartet of the MYF. All young people are urged to attend and bring friends.

Betty Cash served as program leader last Sunday morning, when the group thought together on the question, "What does Church Membership Mean?" Special music, "O Love Divine and Golden" was rendered by Miss Jo Ann Falls, Barbara Grantham, and Don Patterson, with Barbara Gault at the piano. This group, in choir vestments, led the singing during the program.

The young people were delighted last Sunday upon reaching their goal of $50.00 in their personal donations on their Orphan Fund. This money has been sent to the Children's Home in Winston-Salem, for the sponsorship of Miss Louise Williams. They are now raising money with which to buy gifts for Miss Williams by selling greeting cards. Leading in the sales is Billy Bumgardner, who has sold 26 boxes, and second and Barbara Gault with 21 boxes. Miss Williams was sent money as a Christmas gift, and a box of candy as a Valentine's gift. The group hopes to have her as their guest for a week this summer during the Youth Activities Week.

Central Methodist Church Host

On Thursday night, Central Methodist church was host to the Gastonia MYF Sub-District meeting. Seventy-five were present. A lovely pot of azaleas were placed in the sanctuary for the meeting. A prelude of soft organ music by Barbara Gault, called the group to worship. Following a brief worship

Junior Woman's Club Honor Past Presidents

The outstanding social event of the past week was the reception given Friday night in the Woman's Club by the Junior Woman's Club honoring their past presidents for the past ten years. Mrs. S. S. Weir, Jr., and Mrs. Hubert Davidson greeted guests as they arrived and introduced them to the receiving line which included the president, Mrs. Don Blanton of Gastonia, the following past presidents, Mrs. John Boyle of Shelby, Mrs. Lynwood Parton of Gastonia, Mrs. Bus Oates and Mrs. Craig Falls. Mrs. W. E. Thomson of Kannapolis, also a former president, was unable to attend.

Red Camellias and the George Washington motif were cleverly carried out in decorations. The refreshment table was covered with a white linen cloth and held a large crystal punch bowl in the center, surrounded with camellias and greenery.

Individual cookies iced with a cherry and leaves, open faced sandwiches in red, white and blue was served with cranberry punch. Favors were marshmallows stripped in red, white and blue with a little hatchet stuck in them.

Those helping to entertain at the affair were Mrs. Pink Wate, Mrs. J. W. Webster, Mrs. John Rudisell, Mrs. G. C. Yelton, Mrs. R. S. Oates, Miss Diana Gamble and Miss Grace Davis.

A large number of guests called between the hours of 8 p. m. and 10 p. m.

service, led by visiting young people, an inspiring motion picture was presented, with Bill Briggs operating the machine, assisted by B. S. Feiler, Jr. The picture depicted a young girl from a wealthy family in Arabia who went to college and there learned to love the common people, even to the extent of devoting her life to serving them after becoming a Christian. Her roommate, a Christian girl from a poor family, who was sent to college by the church, was a great influence in her life. They learned that life's richest blessings can come through serving sick and needy mankind.

Following the business session led by Rev. D. L. Stubbs, pastor of Trinity Methodist church, Gastonia, Rev. J. H. Brendall invited the group into the basement for refreshments. Delicious and abundant refreshments consisting of Russian tea, chicken salad sandwiches and doughnuts, were served by Mrs. C. J. Gault, Jr., and members of her circle. Devil-egg sandwiches and peanut-butter filled cookies were also served, buffet style, from a table centered with yellow spring flowers.

A delightful period of recreation followed, led by visitors. Laughter ensued as the group joined in comical antics and games.

Mrs. B. S. Neill Bridge Hostess

With a predominant note of yellow being carried out in the decorations and party appointments Mrs. B. S. Neill delightfully entertained the Entre-Nous club Tuesday afternoon.

Tables were laid for refreshments and upon arrival of all guests a dessert course was served. Several progressions of bridge ensued with Mrs. Robert Neill winning high score award and Mrs. J. H. Arthur, second high.

Mrs. George Houser Ace Of Clubs Hostess

Mrs. George Houser graciously entertained members of the Duplicate club Monday afternoon in her home at Lake Montonia. For the event the home was decorated with lovely bowls of japonica and jonquils.

During the afternoon several progressions of bridge was played. When scores were tallied, Mrs. L. E. Abbott held the high score prize, Mrs. Sam Davis held second high.

When cards were laid aside a fruit salad course was served with coffee. Mrs. Amos Dean was invited to play with the club members.
