

"Highest Mountain" To Be Held Over

"To Climb the Highest Mountain," a movie of the life of a Georgia pastor of 40 years ago, will be held over at the "New" Dixie theatre Friday according to announcement by David Cash.

The picture ran at the Joy theatre on Wednesday and Thursday and will be held over for a third day at the Cash Brothers Dixie house at Joy prices, Mr. Cash said.

The Dixie, opened in 1935, has been extensively redecorated and was re-opened last Friday after closing for three weeks. The plant has been repainted, seats have been repaired and new ones installed, new carpeting has been laid and other improvements made.

American farmers were using 410,000 mechanical corn pickers in 1950, compared to 120,000 in use in 1941.
