Local Ladies Attend Charlotte Luncheon

W. S. Lupo, manager of the Charlotte Sears, Roebuck store, was host at a luncheon Friday at the Cardinal restaurant for the Garden Center of Charlotte, which is sponsored by the Council of North Carolina Garden clubs. This was its initial meeting.

Iris, tulips, and other spring flowers were used on the tables. Mrs. H. C. Sherrill gave the invocation. Mrs. E. A. Palmgren, director of district number three of the Garden clubs, presided. Mrs. J. M. Tyler of Winston, State president of the Garden clubs, was the guest speaker, using garden centers as her topic. Mrs. Ely Perry of Winston, State chairman of Garden Centers, and Mrs. J. H. Grey, Jr., of Statesville, incoming director of district number three, were also guests.

Mrs. W. L. Pressly, president of the Kings Mountain Garden Club was named on the steering committee for the organization of the Center.

The Charlotte Garden Center will be in the glass enclosed space on the main floor of Sears Store.

Mrs. Pressly and Mrs. J. S. Evans, president of the House and Garden club, attended the luncheon.

Mrs. Shuford Fetes D. A. R. Chapter

Colonel Frederick Hambright chapter of the DAR met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Tolly Shuford.

Mrs. J. S. Evans gave a talk on "The Golden Isles of Georgia."

Members of the Home Makers Club who had entered the dress making contest modeled their dresses. Melba Tindall won first place with Connie Bennett, winning second and Jeanette Med-

Mrs. B. S. Peeler Hostess To Circle

Circle No. 3, Central Methodist church, met Monday night at the home of Mrs. B. S. Peeler, with 14 members present. The living room was lovely with arrangements of spring flowers, mingled tree, and potted plants. The meeting opened with an inspiring devotional led by Mrs. Boyer Murray, followed by a Bible study by Mrs. A. L. Allran, who presented a mother and daughter skit, assisted by Mrs. Wilbur Smith. Mrs. H. R. Parton, leader, sang.

Members were urged by a note from Mrs. David Hamrick to notify all mothers of young babies that baby beds and play pens will be provided soon in order that parents of young babies may attend the 11 o'clock service on Sundays, with ladies on duty in the nursery to care for the babies.

Following the business session, delicious refreshments consisting of Russian tea, sandwiches, potato chips, and cookies, were served by the hostess, assisted by several of the members. A delightful period of fellowship followed. The meeting was adjourned by the group repeating the Lord's Prayer.

Circle Meets With Mrs. J. E. Littlejohn

Cornelia Leavell circle of the Baptist church met Monday night with Mrs. James Littlejohn.

The program was given by Mrs. Howard Ware.

Mrs. C. C. Oates presided over the business after which the members enjoyed a fish supper at the Trout Club.

A congealed salad course was served after the business meeting.

Two Are Hostesses At Shower

Mrs. Charles Moss and Mrs. Charles Ramsey were gracious hostesses Monday night at the home of Mrs. Moss on East King street. When the ladies arrived they assembled in the living room where the floral accent was placed on lovely bouquets of jonquils. Several potted plants added color to the appointments.

The party was planned as a courtesy to Mrs. W. D. Morrison. Upon her arrival the hostesses gave Mrs. Morrison a corsage of pink and blue carnations.

Games were the entertaining feature of the evening. A color note of pink and blue was carried out in the refreshments of cream, cake, nuts and coffee.

The highlight of the party was reached when Mrs. Morrison was presented a shower of lovely gifts from the assembled group.

Second Baptist Organize Circle

The following ladies, Mesdames Clemmie Ledford, Marvin Wright, Jack Stone, Jack Bridges, I. W. Ledford, M. A. Hinson, E. H. Johnson and W. F. Fleming met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Ledford and organized a missionary circle to be known as the Lottie Moon Circle.

Mrs. Marvin Wright was elected leader. Mrs. I. W. Ledford gave the lesson. The meeting was closed with sentence prayers.

A social period followed, the hostess served refreshments carrying out the Easter motif. Each guest was given an Easter greeting card.

Favorite RECIPES

ASPARAGUS SUPREME (Mrs. M. A. Ware)

1 can medium giant asparagus—reserve liquid.
1 1/2 cups of heavy cream sauce.
1 1/2 cups grated American Snappy Cheese.
2 or 3 hard boiled eggs—cut in thick slices.
1/4 lb. of blanched almonds, cut in half—reserve a few whole to decorate top.
Cut asparagus in half or thirds and arrange alternately with eggs and nuts in a baking dish. Place asparagus, eggs and sprinkle with nuts. Pour over all, the hot sauce to which the grated cheese is added. Place in hot oven and brown lightly, similar to baking a macaroni pie.

SAUCE

3 tablespoons butter, place in sauce pan, add 3 tablespoons flour, stirring until smooth, add 1/2 cup asparagus liquid.
1 cup milk, stirring to keep smooth. Add the 1 1/2 cup of grated cheese stirring constantly—sprinkle with paprika and pour over Asparagus Supreme.

CARAMEL BARS (Mrs. C. D. Blanton)

1/4 lb. butter.
1/2 cup sugar creamed with butter.
2 egg yolks
1 teaspoon vanilla.
1 1/2 cups flour.
1 teaspoon baking powder.
Mix and put into greased flat pan. Pour over this mixture 1 cup English walnuts. Beat 2 egg whites, 1 cup brown sugar, 1 teaspoon vanilla, spread over the mixture. Bake in a moderate oven. Cool and cut in squares.

MYF Has Planning Session

Sunday evening, following a delicious covered dish supper in the church basement, the Senior MYF met in Commission groups to make future plans. Upon meeting together for reports, the following plans were reported: Worship, reported by Ann Mayes, will consist of evening meetings each Sunday in March, with a special program on Easter Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, followed by a movie, "Crossroads," if available for that evening. Recreation, reported by Dot Hayes, will consist of a picnic and worship service on top of Kings Mountain on Easter Sunday. The group will leave the church at 2:30 p. m. to climb the mountain. As school is out on that day, Community Service, reported by Nan Jean Gantt, will result in a visitation campaign in March, and a Workshop meeting with Nan Jean in April to make greeting cards for hospital trays. World Friendship, reported by Jo Ann Hayes, will be emphasized by a party made up of games from foreign lands. An interesting worship service, led by Ann Mayes and Shirley Falls, was held after the business session. At 7 o'clock the Seniors met with Sonny Peeler for youth choir rehearsal, with a large number in the choir for the evening service, rendering the beautiful anthem, "God So Loved the World."

Billy Bumgardner received an MYF emblem ring Sunday morning as a prize for selling the most greeting cards. Second prize, an MYF emblem pin, went to Barbara Gault.

Mrs. Costner W. M. U. Hostess

The W. M. U. of the Temple Baptist church met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Daisy Costner with 16 members, one visitor and one new member present.

Mrs. O. K. White was in charge of the program. After the program and all business was completed, Mrs. Costner served a delicious salad and sweet course.
